Lehman Township Class of 1949 gathers for reunion

The 50th class reunion of Lehman Township High School was held at Irem Temple Country Club, and 16 of the 40 class members who graduated on June 2, 1949 were in attendance. Each classmate received a 1949 silver half dollar and a booklet commemorating the 50th reunion. The booklet's cover depicted a scottie dog, which was Lehman's mascot. Table decorations were red and white flowers in cobalt blue vases. Lehman's colors were red and blue. Entertainment for the evening was Lehman cheers and songs, led by former cheerleaders, Joyce Adams Thomas, Mary Dargoy Maher, and Joan Coolbaugh Britt. The event was followed by a breakfast the next morning at Picketts Charge. The reunion was chaired by Joan Coolbaugh Britt and co-chaired by Janet Wright Eddy and Mary Dargoy Maher. Pictured above, first row, left to right: Mary Dargoy Maher, Adeline Towarnicki Normandy, Evelyn Rogers Weaver, Charlotte Culp Ashton, Alice Culp Ross, Joan Coolbaugh Britt. BACK-TO-SCHOOL

Ask about special 2 and 3 week ad programs

It's a subject too big to fit in one issue! Reader interest in back-to-school news—especially bus schedules and home room assignments—is incredible. But it's not all ready at the same time, and it won't fit in one issue, so we'll publish Back-To-School across three issues. And since we offer special rates to run in them, your ad message really hits home, at low cost.

These are the biggest-selling papers of the year, with newsstand sales 500 copies or more higher than usual. Even though we raise the quantity substantially, many stores still sell out.

Publication Dates: August 18th, 25th & September 1
