

LL band invites fans to join bus trips

The Lake-Lehman Band Sponsors are chartering buses to all the Tournament of Band Competitions that will be held outside of the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton area. On October 16 the award-winning Lake-Lehman Band will be competing in Bensalem, Pa. On October 23 they will be going to Cataqua, Pa and October 30, they will be performing in Lebanon, Pa.

All buses will be leaving from the Lake-Lehman High School at 3 p.m. These competitions are always entertaining, full of fun and a great way to show your support for our student musicians. Seating is limited, so hurry and get your reservation in. For more information, call Nancy Hildebrand at 256-7435.

MOVERS AND SHAKERS

Lauren Allen, of Trucksville, has been named associate director of development and alumni relations and will be responsible for managing the College Misericordia's alumni relations efforts and the annual Alumni Phonathon.

Prior to this appointment, Allen served as the public relations officer for PNC Bank, Scranton, beginning in 1996. She also served as the senior public affairs coordinator for the Geisinger Health System, and as marketing communications coordinator for Northeastern Bank.

She holds a bachelor of arts degree in journalism from Moravian College and a master of science degree in organizational management from College Misericordia.

Thomas Connors, A.T.C., will serve as Dallas Area High School's athletic trainer, servicing a number of the school's athletic competitions and practices.

A contractual agreement forged between Wyoming Valley Health Care System and Dallas Area School District means the WVHCS Sports Medicine Program will provide Connors' services on a full-time basis, and that he will be on-hand at every designated athletic event for the school. Athletic trainers are health care professionals specifically educated and experienced in treating injuries associated with athletic participation.

Connors is a graduate of East Stroudsburg University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in movement studies and exercise science. He has extensive training as a student athletic trainer and is a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association, the Eastern Athletic Trainers' Association and the Pennsylvania Athletics Trainers' Society. He is also EMT-MAST certified.

William A. Runner, Jr., of Shavertown, recently was elected president of the LCCC Community Foundation.

Runner holds an A.B.A. degree in commerce and finance from the University of Pennsylvania. During his career in banking, he was employed by Bache Halsey Stuart, First Eastern Bank and PNC Bank. Since his retirement in 1996, he has worked as a consultant with PNC. He is also an active member of the Shavertown United Methodist Church.

Runner joined the LCCC Foundation Board in 1994. During his term, he has served on the dinner committee, the finance committee, and was treasurer for one year. Runner also served as chair of the nominating committee for the past two years.

Runner is married to the former Joanne Margaret Sides, who has been on the board of the Back Mountain Library for several years.

The couple has two sons and a granddaughter, Sydney Alexa of Dallas.

The LCCC Foundation is conducting a capital campaign to raise funds for a child development center at the college.

Patricia Hinchey, Ed.D., associate professor of education at Penn State Worthington Scranton, recently was appointed to a three-year term on Penn State's Commission for Women and will serve as co-chair of the Liaison Committee and as a member of the Faculty Issues and Development Committee.

Penn State's Commission for Women serves as an advisory group to the president of the University on matters affecting women at all Penn State locations. Its purpose is to promote the efforts of women and to serve as a forum for the exchange of ideas.

Dr. Hinchey graduated cum laude from Wilkes University with a B.A. in English education and an M.S. in English education. She earned her Ed.D. in English education from Teachers College, Columbia University.

Prior to joining the Penn State Worthington Scranton faculty, Dr. Hinchey was assistant chair of the Department of Languages, Literature, and Social Studies at Columbia University's Teachers College in New York. She has served as instructor of English at Penn State Wilkes-Barre, College Misericordia and Luzerne County Community College.

Dr. Hinchey, text, Finding Freedom in the Classroom - A Practical Introduction to Critical Theory was released in 1998 and her second book, co-authored with Isabel Kimmel, is scheduled for publication in March 2000. Dr. Hinchey is consulting editor for the national journal The Clearing House, has served as consultant to public schools, and has spoken and written on English education and teacher education in several state and national forums. She belongs to several professional and scholarly societies, including the American Education Research Association and Association of Teacher Educators.

Dr. Hinchey and her husband, Ed, reside in Dallas.
