SPORTS ROUNDUP

FIELD HOCKEY

Lehman 5, Wallenpaupack 1

Paupack scored first but that was the high point of their game Monday. Terri Peiffer, Janelle Perlis and Melissa DeCesaris scored for Lehman in the first half, with Perlis and Carrie Thorne adding one each in the second. Alyson Bevan had four assists, Rachel Kasper had the other. Janel Janiczek recorded four saves.

Dallas 4, GAR 0

Brittany Bartolini scored the first two Dallas goals, and Molly Savage and Daisy Neiman added one apiece, as the Lady Mounts recorded 38 shots on goal while holding GAR to just one.

Lehman 2, Dallas 1

Dallas took a 1-0 lead into halftime of the game between the Back Mountain schools played at Dallas Sept. 22, but the Knights added two goals in the first five minutes of the second half to defeat the Mountaineers. Brittany Bartolini opened the scoring in the first half off an assist from Rachel Kukosky. Eleven seconds in the second half, league superstar Janelle Perlis put the ball in the net to tie the game at one. Then Rachel Kasper scored four and a half minutes into the half to provide the final margin of victory. Goalkeepers Janel Janiczek and Melonie Sappe each played well in net.

Lehman 2, Wyoming Valley West 1

Lake-Lehman rallied from another 1-0 halftime deficit to defeat the Spartans Sept. 24. Allison Bevan scored in the second half to knot the score at one. Kate Britt then scored later on in the second half to put Lehman in the lead. The goalkeeping and defensive play of the Knights kept the Spartans off the scoreboard in the second half.

Dallas 5, Montrose 0

Goalie Melonie Sappe made five saves and recorded another shutout in a win over Montrose. Senior Jennifer Noon tallied four goals in the contest. The fifth goal was added by captain Sherri Kuderka.

SOCCER

Dallas 4, Meyers 0

Ryan Love scored the first goal only eight minutes into the match, and that was all the Mounts needed. Ricky Branco scored twice and Andrew George chipped in one to keep Dallas unbeaten. The Mounts had 32 shots, and held the Mohawks to four, all stopped by Nate Hoffman.

Lehman 1, Abington 0

The Black Knights held off a game Comets crew Monday at Clarks Summit. Brian McMahon scored the only goal with a minute left in the first half, off a Brian Noler assist. Russ Mosier stopped seven Comets shots.

Dallas 2, Crestwood 0

After a scoreless first half, Dallas scored two goals in the second half to escape with a home win over Crestwood. Sophomore Ryan Love scored the first goal of the game in the second half before Vito Recchia added a goal later in the half. Mountaineer goalie Nathan Hoffman recorded another shutout in net as Dallas remained undefeated and alone in first place in the standings.

KNIGHTS' DAY

Orienteering at Frances Slocum

The Pocono Orienteering Club (POC) will hold its October meet jointly with the Sierra Club on Saturday, October 2, at Frances Slocum State Park. Participants can register and start any time between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. The entry fee is $5 per map and small groups such as families can use one map. Compasses can be rented for 50¢. Instruction is available at all times. Four different courses of varying skill level will be available. Events are held regardless of weather, so proper clothing and footwear are recommended. In orienteering, participants used a detailed five-color map and a compass to locate control locations in the park. Recreational and competitive categories are available. Beginner courses remain on well-marked hiking trails. For more information contact Rob Wilkison at 286-7643.
