Roundup

at Shadowbrook was too much for Dallas to overcome in a match Oct. 7. Matt Hoover attained medalist with a round of 38, while Mike Fehlinger, Mike Ruggere, and Kevin Piekara respectively had rounds of 46, 47, and 49 for the Mountaineers.

Bishop Hafey 154, Dallas 164

The Mountaineers had their third match in three days as they fell to Bishop Hafey at a match played at Valley Country Club on Friday. Jeff Zatruta was the low score for Dallas at 38. Matt Hoover followed with a 40. Kevin Piekara and Mike Ruggere added rounds of 43.

SOCCER

Dallas 4, Coughlin 1

Dallas stayed close to unbeaten Lake-Lehman with a convincing 4-1 win at Coughlin Monday. Ryan Love opened the scoring after only six minutes, and Ricky Branco, Andrew George and Adam Clay added a goal apiece before Coughlin got on the board. Clay also had two assists, while Nate Hoffman stopped eight Crusader shots.

Lehman 1, Bishop Hoban 0

Tony Van Scoy scored unassisted in the second half as Lehman remained unbeaten and alone in first place in the standings. Goalkeeper Russ Mosier recorded the shutout for the Knights. His teammates outshot the Argents 23-7.

Lehman 5, Wyoming Valley West 3

The Knights scored four second-half goals to knock off Wyoming Valley West in a matchup of top area teams. Lehman's offensive firepower proved too much for the Spartans this time around. The two teams had played to a 0-0 tie a month ago. Tom Brislin scored Lehman's first goal off a pass from David Walters. After two Spartan goals, Brislin found the back of the net a second time just after halftime. Brian Noler and Walters then followed Brislin's second goal to give the Knights a two-goal lead. Tony Van Scoy then scored the fifth Lehman goal. Walters finished with three assists in addition to his goal.

Dallas 5, Bishop O'Reilly 4

Dallas fell behind by four goals in the first half, but rallied to win a one-goal thriller. Tim Faneck's first of two goals got the comeback started. Ryan Love also scored in the first half for the Mountaineers. Andrew George started the second half scoring, followed by Faneck again and then finally by Ricky Branco on a penalty shot with about 20 minutes remaining. Adam Clay had a pair of assists.

Dallas 6, Abington Heights 3

Ricky Branco recorded a hat trick as Dallas cruised to a home win over Abington Heights Oct. 7. Ryan Love began the scoring in the 11th minute off a pass from Branco. Love then assisted on two Branco goals. John Isaac and Ryan Rother added the final two goals. Isaac finished with a goal and an assist.

VOLLEYBALL

N. Pocono 2, Dallas 0

The Lady Mounts took the first game to the limit, losing 16-14 before dropping the second 15-9. Amber Koes had 11 digs and three kills while Kerry DeAngelo had three aces and four digs. Dallas is still looking for its first win.

Hazleton Area 2, Lehman 0

Lehman dropped a tough decision to host Hazleton Oct. 5. Scores were 15-12 and 15-10. The Knights were led by Sarah Davis, who had ten points and five aces. Stacy Rosenbaum added five digs and four points on three aces. Lehman's season record dropped to 6-3.

Crestwood 2, Dallas 0

Crestwood easily handled the Mountaineers in a match last week. Jenn Roman led Dallas with five assists and six digs. Sarah Nichol added a pair of kills and a pair of blocks. Shannon Harkins served a pair of aces for the Mountaineers. Game scores were 15-6 and 15-2.

Too little, too late

Nanticoke came up the mountain and went home with a W in one of the best games in the Wyoming Valley Conference this season. Dallas had a chance to tie at the end, but two fumbles kept them out of the end zone. In top photo, Matt Jackson for some of his game-high 212 rushing yards. Chuck Suppon, above, ran for 19 yards and a touchdown, and also was 5-for-9 in the air. Below, Jason Race made a spectacular catch with a Nanticoke defender on his back. The Mounts host Tamaqua Saturday.
