Award-winning mime to visit Penn State

Delighting children and adults for the past 20 years, Curtis Zimmerman will bring his unique and contemporary style of mime to Penn State Wilkes-Barre on Tuesday, Oct. 26 at 7 p.m. Zimmerman has performed at Caesars Palace, Las Vegas, Carnival Cruise Line and was resident mime for Universal Studios in Hollywood. He has appeared on national TV in commercials and on over 20 television shows.

Using a blend of juggling, fire-eating, unicycling, coin magic and stilt walking, Curtis balances art and entertainment. His performance is a unique and contemporary style of mime celebrating the humor and poignancy of the human condition. He incorporates special messages into performances making every interaction captivating.

For the past seven years, Curtis has been active with Arts in Education. He has performed his one-man show and conducted hundreds of workshops for thousands of students and teachers.

Curtis will perform at 7 p.m. in Bierly Auditorium located in the Science Building. His uniquely educational and imaginative show captivates adults and children of all ages. Penn State Wilkes-Barre's cultural and performing arts programs are free and open to the public. For more information, call 675-9284 or 675-2171.
