

Civil War Round Table will meet

A meeting of the Wyoming Valley Civil War Round Table is scheduled for Thursday, Oct. 21 at 7 p.m. at the American Legion Building, Route 415 in Dallas.

Robert Werner, the founder of "Historical Impressions" will be the main speaker. His topic for the evening will be on the development of, and the important role that the U.S. Sanitary Commission played in the Civil War. The Commission was formed on June 9, 1861. It was the central organization for approximately 7,200 relief societies during the Civil War. It was the predecessor of the American Red Cross.

Ms. Mary Ann Storz will report to the Round Table on her experience at the Civil War Summer Institute. It will include information of Civil War Web Sites and other pertinent information for Civil War "buffs". Ms. Storz is a social studies teacher at Dallas Area High School.

The book to be raffled off for the month will be "The Secret War for the Union", by Edwin Fishel. It is the first book to examine in detail the impact of intelligence on the historical significance of the Civil War.

The monthly trivia questions on the Civil War will be held. Refreshments will be served. If you are interested in the Civil War please feel free to join us. New members are always welcome. For more information please feel free to call 675-3803 or 675-0606.

It's easy to subscribe.
