Cider Painters exhibit opens this weekend

The Cider Painters of America will be holding their annual show of miniature art through the following dates at the Waterlily, 103 East Overbrook Avenue, Shavertown.

The exhibit runs from November 7-December 11. The hours: Monday-Friday, 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Saturdays, 9 a.m.-4 p.m.

Though locally operated the Cider Painters has members from all over the world making the annual show an international event. The paintings are sized at 3 inches by 5 inches and smaller, some as small as postage stamps. The show is free and open to the public during regular hours.

Penn State campus to hold two open house nights

Penn State Wilkes-Barre will host two Open House Information Nights at Thursday, Nov. 11 and Wednesday, Nov. 17. High school juniors and seniors and their parents are invited to attend, as well as adults interested in beginning higher education or returning to college. The programs will be held in the Bell Atlantic Center for Technology on the campus in Lehman.

The open house on Nov. 11 will begin at 6:30 p.m. and will provide an opportunity to learn about the programs, facilities and resources available at the campus. Faculty, admissions counselors and staff will be on hand to discuss associate and baccalaureate degree programs, admissions procedures, student activities, athletic programs, scholarship opportunities and financial aid.

General information about Penn State will also be available.

The open house scheduled for Nov. 17 will begin at 7 p.m. and will concentrate on the new Information Sciences and Technology degree program and other associate degree programs offered by Penn State Wilkes-Barre. Faculty from each degree program will be available to speak to prospective students about their curriculum and address any questions or concerns.

In addition, Saturday appointments with admissions counselors will be available on Nov. 6, 13 and 20. To schedule an appointment or to make reservations for either open house call 675-9238 or 1-800-966-6613. Refreshments will be served.

Trucksville UMC plans trip, candle sale
