Riders

Jamie Pikul, Shavertown, 9th in Hunter Under Saddle Ponies; Rachael Pugh, Dallas, 5th in County Team; and Ashley Yanchik, Dallas, 5th in County Team.

In 4-H horse production classes, members breed and raise their own project animals. Placing in the Production classes were: Megan Ross, Dallas, 2nd in Welsh Pony Yearling Filly; Alex Shumack, Hunlock Creek, 3rd in Welsh Pony Yearling Filly.

Several other horse club members received recognition in the state contest. They were: Katelyn Heller, Hunlock Creek; Liz Heller, Hunlock Creek; Devon Lewis, Harveys Lake; Erin Liss, Dallas; Adrienne Pugh, Dallas; Becky Yeisley, Dallas.

The primary purpose of the 4-H program is to develop life skills in youth and skills in horse management. Through competition, the 4-Hers develop riding skills, gain self-confidence and learn proper care of animals.

The state show culminates the year for approximately 6,500 Pennsylvania 4-H members enrolled in horse and pony clubs. To be eligible for this show, 4-Hers had to advance through qualifying competitions at county, regional and district levels. More than 900 winners from county and district competitions vied for awards. Events tested skills in showmanship, equitation, pleasure, jumping, driving and timed events.

4-H is the youth component of Penn State Cooperative Extension. 4-H programs are open to all youth regardless of race, color, religion, sex, national origin or disability. For more information on the 4-H horse program in Luzerne County contact Donna Grey at 825-1701 or 602-0600.

Lehman wins first round game

Senior Janelle Perlis scored just under nine minutes into sudden-death overtime as she helped the Black Knights to a 2-1 opening-round win in the state field hockey playoffs. After falling behind six minutes into the game, the defense completely shut down the offense of Villa Maria the rest of the way. Lehman got on the board midway through the first half when Terri Peiffer tied the game at one. Keeper Janel Janiczek stopped six shots for Lehman.
