

Sports Week

Section 2

Wednesday, December 15, 1999

NAPA Auto Parts wins high-scoring battle with Gordon

The balanced scoring attack of Kyle Mahle, Robbie Tomko and Chris Parrish led NAPA to victory 64-61. Stephen Zupko also added 6 points for the winners. Leading the scoring for Gordon Insurance were Ben Thomas, Mike Wyberski, Billy DeAngelo and Brad Fagula.

Morgan, Stanley and Dean Witter 35 - House of Nutrition 31

Adam Singer was injured in the second quarter of a close game, but came back strong in the fourth quarter, scoring 12 of 16 game points in the fourth quarter to lead his team to 2-0 and the only undefeated team after two weeks of play. Also contributing with the offense was Adam King 14 points, Guy Carpenter 4 points and Daryl Rogers 2 points and awesome defense. David Judge had a late game steal to help preserve the win for the investors.

DYB
5-6 BOYS

Luzerne National Bank 25 - Eye Care Specialist 20

Mike Race and J.J. Durr led the scoring for Luzerne National Bank with 13 and 9 points respectively in a win over Eye Care Specialist. Max Millington added 3 points for Luzerne National, contributing to a wonderful defensive effort for the banker were Adam Besecker, John Thompson, Paul Daniels and Eric Butruce. The Eye Care Specialist were led by David Luksh 8 points, Brendon Carr 5 points and Brendan Delaney 4 points.

See 5-6 BOYS, pg 10

Pace hangs on for win

Despite a fourth quarter rally by the Fieldhouse, Pace Therapy held on for the 15-12 win. Brittany Prater was high scorer for Pace with 8 points. Stephanie Pace had 6 points and Amanda Kamarunas added a point with a foul shot. Chelsea McHale and Amanda Touey led the defense for Pace.

Amy Austin and Gina Martin each had 4 points for the Fieldhouse. Kenslie Kerestes and Megan Youells each scored a basket. Jaime Novitski and Alyssa Novroski played strong defense.

Quality Collision 21 - Eastern Insurance 14

Jessica Jones was high scorer for Quality Collision with 10 points. Nikki Pisacano had 5 points and Devin Lacey had 2 baskets and Jackie O'Brien added 2 points to get the win. Amy Yurchison, Jenni Boback and Paige Kyle played great defensive games.

DYB
5-6 GIRLS

Kelsey Moody led the offense for Eastern Insurance with 8 points, Sara Swebston added 2 baskets. Maxxe Spencer, Samantha Marquart, Alyssa Miller and Julianne Pettit all played outstanding defense.

American Legion Post 672 16 - Order of the Eastern Star 7

Cassie Snider came out strong for the American Legion scoring 6 points in the first quarter. She had a game high 8 points. Lisa Giacometti had 4 points and Lauren Yurko added a basket. Melissa Evans had an excellent defensive game.

Eastern Star's high scorer was Caitie Hession with 4 points. Megan McDonald scored 2 points and Kristin Evans made a foul shot. The defense was led by Caitlin Green and Rayanda Calkins.

CDI - Forty Fort 24 - Penn State Seed 16

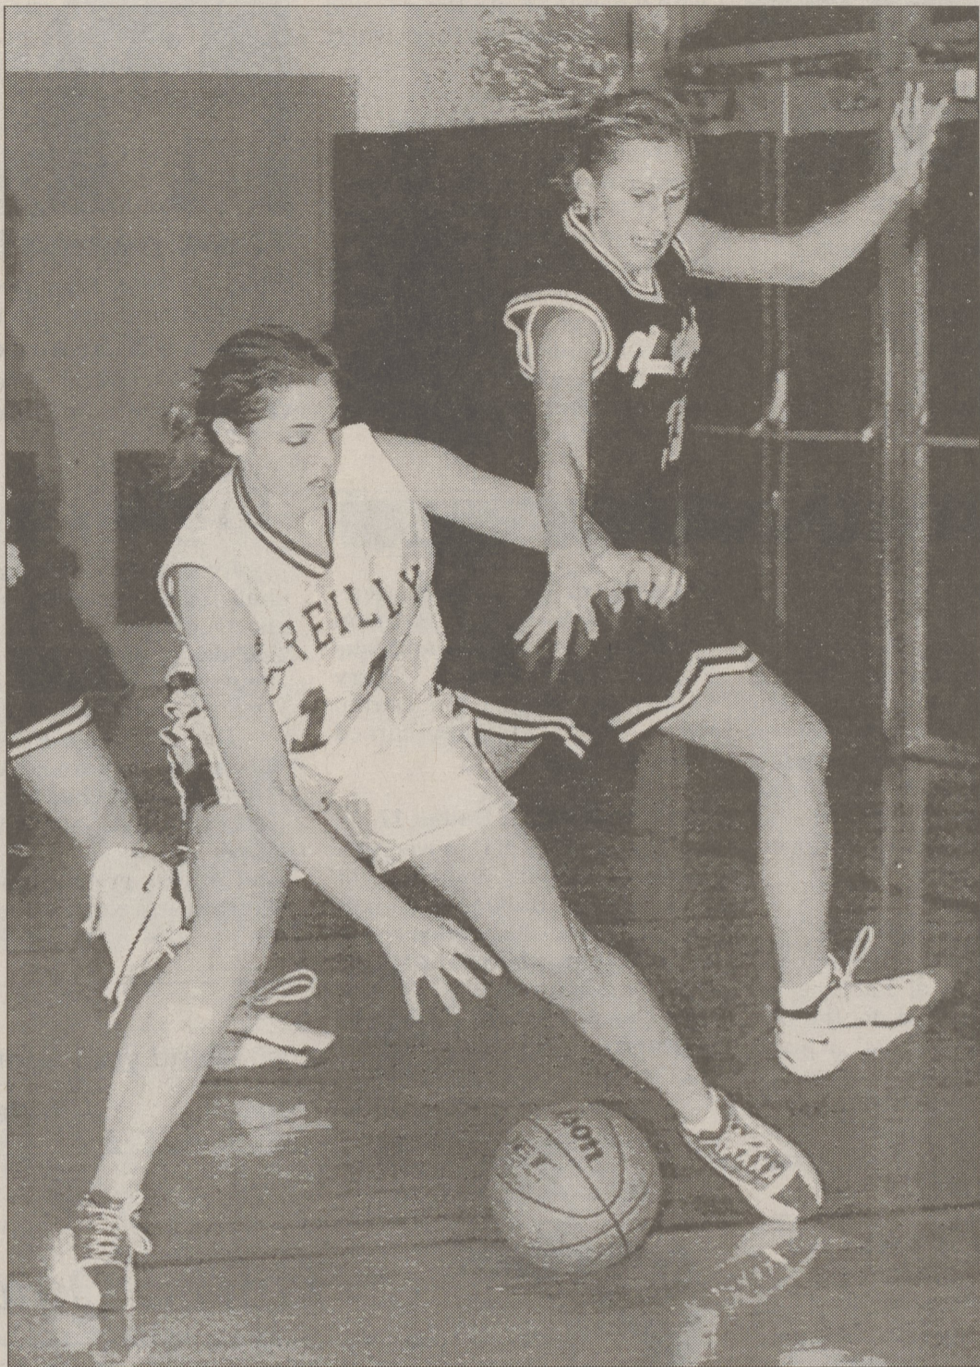

In a well played game on both sides, CDI came up with the victory. Robin Razawich was high scorer for CDI with 18 points. Margie Gelso, Stephanie Konecke, and Brittney Allan each scored with a basket. Courtney Taylor and Nicole Madden played strong defensively.

Laura Nieman with 8 points and Kathleen Paley with 6 led Penn State Seed's offense, while Jessica English added a basket. Jackie Lowe and Katie Gilligan had good defensive games.

Send your sports reports by e-mail

dalpost@aol.com

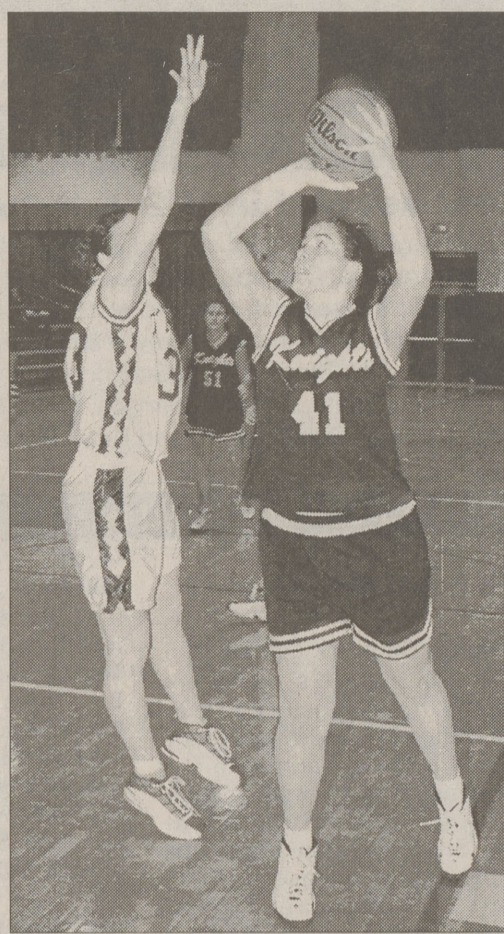

O'Reilly runs over Lehman

Bishop O'Reilly, led by a trio of Back Mountain girls, came to Lehman Saturday night and went home with a 60-42 victory. In photos, clockwise from left: Maria Wright held off an attack by Lehman's Jen Frank; Kieran Lucarino went up for a pair of her 18 points; Gina Coombs drove around O'Reilly's Molly Guntli.

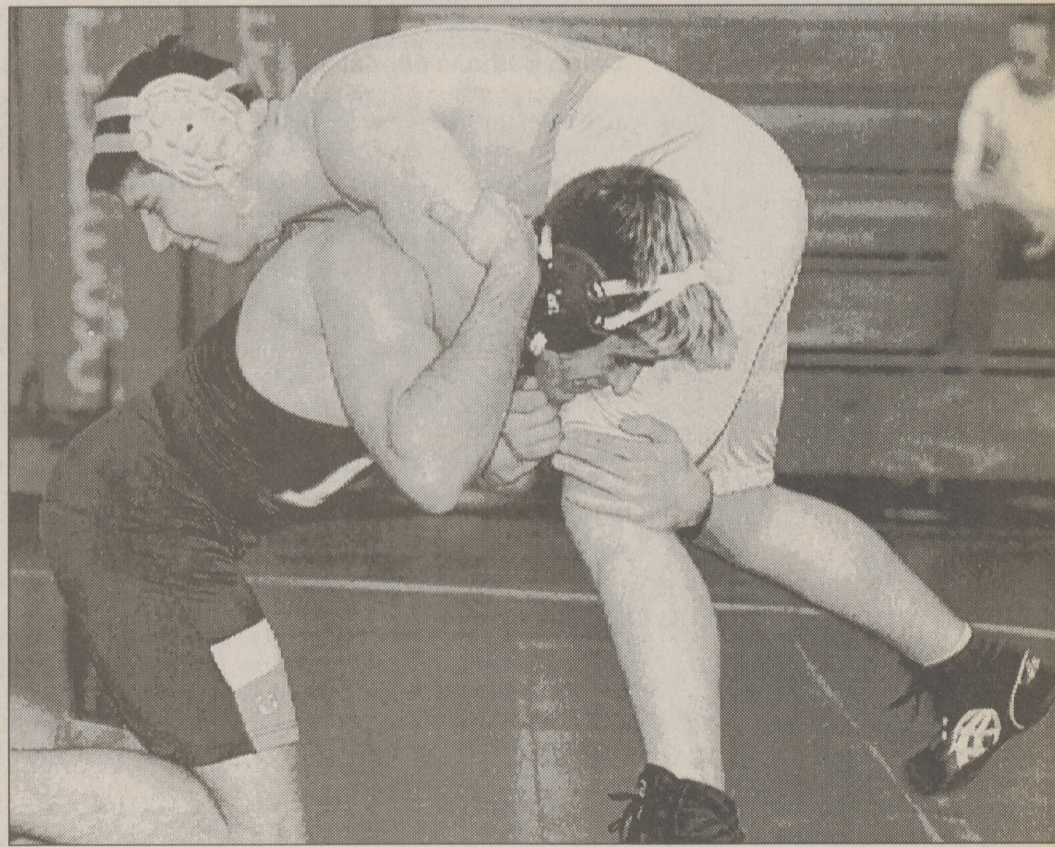

Dallas claims easy victory

Dallas pounded Bishop O'Hara on the mat Saturday, coming away with a 66-6 win. O'Hara's only points came on a win by forfeit at 125. Dallas won five matches by forfeit, and five matches with pins in less than a minute, some of them against

POST PHOTOS/JIM PHILLIPS

POST PHOTOS/JIM PHILLIPS

Eye Care tops Josie's 38-35

Eye Care Specialist improved to 4 wins and 1 loss at the end of the first half of the regular season led by Halli Williams and Corey Patton with 11 points each. Also contributing for the winners were Sarah Swebston 4 points, Lauren Noreika 3 points, Tiffany Gergel and Megan Savage 2 points apiece. Lauren Macri played a good defensive game. Leading the way for Josie's were Jackie Hardwick 20 points, Jodi Dickson 13 points and Samantha Decker with a bucket.

DYB
7-8 GIRLS

Dough Company 36 - Dallas Rotary 17

Kara Ringler, Shannon Thomas and Kristen Evans led a very balanced scoring attack to improve to 5-0 after 5 weeks of play. Leading scorers for the pizza bakers were Evans 13 points, Thomas 8 points and many rebounds and assists. Ringler 7 points, Sarah Pieczynski, Katie Smith and Nikki Pisacano 2 points apiece. Leading Rotary were Rebekah Clay 7 points, Kim Durr 6 points, Caitlin McGuire and Shoshanna Gitlin 2 points apiece. Jackie Opel played a very good defensive game for Rotary.

See 7-8 GIRLS, pg 10

Amy Lloyd swims for F&M

Amy Lloyd, of Dallas, swam in the Franklin & Marshall Invitational recently. She is a sophomore member of the women's swim program competing in distance free style events and a 1998 graduate of Wyoming Seminary.

GOH 7th Grade Girls win tourney

The Gate of Heaven 7th Grade Girls Basketball team recently took first place in the St. Mary's Old Forge Holiday Tournament with a 37-35 win over Holy Rosary of Duryea. Janelle Zabresky and Sandy Krogulski led all scorers with 16 and 10 points each. Katy Whalen and Liz Clements provided the defensive spark in the back and forth finale. In the semi-final game, Devin Carey, Kim Durr and Janelle Zabresky led a balanced scoring attack contributing to a 40-34 win over St. Mary's Avoca. Zabresky also had a career-high 21 rebounds.

The Gators defeated St. John the Baptist, Pittston in the opener 33-27. In a true team effort, Kristen Evans, Lauren Adamchak, and Melissa Milo paced the Gators with solid efforts on both ends of the court.

Gate of Heaven started off the 1999/2000 season with an 8-1 record in November including two second place finishes in other tournament action. The Gators are coached by Mary Durr, Ken Krogulski and Dave Whalen.

Kneeling, Mary Durr; 1st row, Christa Wroblewski, Leslie Wetzel; 2nd row, Dave Whalen, Melissa Milo, Joanna Smith, Sandy Krogulski, Janelle Zabresky, Lauren Adamchak, Kristen Evans, and Ken Krogulski; back row, Devin Carey, Liz Clements, Kim Durr and Katy Whalen. Missing from photo: Lauren Collini.

