the 100 Fly. Arte Vankuyk took second in diving for the Mountaineers. Carl Wilcox (200 Free) and Doug Yeager (100 Back) each took third place overall in their respective events.

Bishop Hoban 68, Dallas 30

Dallas got three first place finishes despite falling to the Argents of Bishop Hoban last Thursday. Senior Matt Schweitzer captured both the 200 IM and 100 Fly victories. Arte Vankuyk took first in the diving competition. Carl Wilcox earned a second place and a third place finish, while Doug Yeager took third place in a pair of events.

BOYS BASKETBALL

Dallas 63, Bishop Hoban 50

Dallas used four three-pointers and a 10-point difference in fourth quarter scoring to pull out a road win in Wilkes-Barre last Tuesday night. Jay Carroll was the high man for the Mountaineers, collecting 23 points including three triples. Chuck Suppon (14) and Matt Jackson (13) also had double digit scoring nights for Dallas.

Valley West 68, Dallas 37

Dallas had a difficult time putting solid runs together against a very talented Spartan squad last Thursday evening. Jeff Zaruta led the Dallas scoring with eight points, while John Simonitis followed with six. Dallas got five points each from Jay Carroll, Matt Wycallis, and Chuck Suppon.

Hazleton Area 50, Dallas 40

Hazleton made eight three-point baskets to none for Dallas as it earned a tough 10-point win against the Mountaineers Saturday night. The Dallas scoring was led by Jay Carroll's 16 points, followed by Matt Jackson and Chuck Suppon who each added eight points.

Meyers 92, Lake-Lehman 41

Lehman faced a 19-point deficit after one period of play and could not recover against a very strong Mohawk squad last week. Matt Loftus scored ten points to lead the Knights' scoring attack. Russ Mosier added eight points, while Dwayne Kalinay added seven.

Berwick 50, Lake-Lehman 35

Berwick played pressure defense well in a win against the Knights on Thursday. Russ Mosier scored eleven for Lehman. Matt Dunn followed closely with nine points, while Dwayne Kalinay and Dom Castrignano each added five.

Coughlin 99, Lake-Lehman 51

Coughlin used a 26-3 second quarter edge to cruise to a win over the Knights on Saturday. Senior Matt Loftus led the Lehman scoring column with 15 points. Russ Mosier finished with 11 points while Matt Dunn added nine. The game was close after the first quarter as Coughlin held a 24-22 lead at that point.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

Berwick 57, Lake-Lehman 37

Lehman played a solid three quarters against a strong Bulldog team, but a 4-point third quarter was too much to overcome as Berwick won comfortably. Kieran Lucarino scored 16 points to lead the Lehman offense. Danielle Kern followed with six points.

Lake-Lehman 62, Coughlin 52

Kieran Lucarino scored a season-high 22 points to lead host Lehman to a victory over Coughlin Friday night. Danielle Kern also had a season-high point total with 17. Jen Frank added eight points for the Black Knights. Lake-Lehman took control of the game with a second quarter 17-9 run.

Valley West 66, Dallas 45

Dallas ran into a very skilled

Spartan squad last Wednesday evening in Plymouth as it fell by 21 points. Stephanie Simonitis led Dallas in scoring with 17 points, while Jen Noon followed with 11. Rachel Kukosky chipped in by adding nine points.

Hazleton Area 71, Dallas 48

Dallas struggled offensively as they fell to Hazleton in a rout on Friday night. Stephanie Simonitis was the leading scorer yet again for Dallas as she netted 11 points. Jen Noon and Rachel Kukosky each recorded eight points.

WRESTLING

Meyers 48, Lake-Lehman 24

Lehman's team of mostly underclassmen put up a good fight against league power Meyers, but still fell in defeat. District champion Aaron Kubasik (112 pounds) gained the Knights some early momentum by earning a pin. Rich Hislop (171 pounds) and Dave DeLong (189 pounds) also earned pinfalls for Lake-Lehman. Matt Kehler (275 pounds) earned a forfeit victory.

Lehman 51, Williamsport 11

Lehman registered an easy win over Williamsport at home Saturday afternoon. Ryan Post, Jeff Taylor, Jim Higgins, Dave DeLong, and Matt Kehler each earned pinfall victories in the contest. Kelby Morgan, Aaron Kubasik, and Jason Wood earned major decision victories. Matt Gonzalez earned a 9-7 decision in the contest as well.

FALL ALL-STAR SELECTIONS

Girls Volleyball

Lake-Lehman senior co-captain Jen Frank was named to the second team all-star squad chosen by league coaches in girls volleyball for this past season. Fellow senior co-captain Stacey Rosenbaum earned recognition on the third team. Sarah Davis, Kari Maskalis, and Monica Cabrera of Lake-Lehman High School and Kim Derhammer of Dallas High School made honorable mention.

Boys Cross Country

Dallas sophomore Peter Miller earned honorable mention recognition from the coaches of the Wyoming Valley Conference for his fine season this past fall.

Football

Dallas seniors Matt Jackson, Matt Douglas, and Matt Acri made the first team offense all-star squad selected by coaches of the Wyoming Valley Conference's Division II for their play during the recent season. Joe Stuppino, Mitch Onzik, Brian Vetter, and John James also made first team, but for defense. Ted Jackson took coach of the year, leading the Mountaineers to an 11-2 record including a district title. Travis McRoy, Greg Woronko, Matt Kehler, DJ Harris, and Rich Patton all made first team for the Black Knights of Lake-Lehman. Second team members include Chris Navin, John Sharkus, and John Pitcavage from Lake-Lehman and Chuck Suppon, Nick Lopukovsky, Jason Race, and Jeff Mattie from Dallas.

Boys Soccer

The Back Mountain schools had a total of seven members on the Division 1 all-star squad as selected by the league coaches. For Lehman, Russ Mosier, Brian Noler, David Walters, Tom Brislin, and Brian Noler each earned spots on the team. Mountaineers Andrew George and Jesse Williams also earned the same recognition. Wyoming Seminary's Mike Faneck of Shavertown made first team for Division 2.

Santa shop at Lehman-Jackson

The Lehman-Jackson Elementary PTA recently held one of its popular holiday programs called "Santa's Secret Shop". A holiday favorite, PTA volunteers set up a special workshop where all students, Kindergarten through 6th grade had the opportunity to purchase Christmas gifts for their families in secret. Shown hiding some of their shopping treasures is Mrs. Louise Schwartz's 3rd grade students.
