Karen Boback accepted at Wharton School of Business

Karen "K.C." Boback has been informed of her early acceptance to the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania as a member of the Class of 2004. Wharton's full-time undergraduate program in business, founded in 1881, is considered the finest in the world and is the only one offered among Ivy League institutions. The program has been consistently ranked #1 in the nation, and its academic departments have received more #1 rankings and more top-five rankings than any other business school in the world. With an eighteen percent increase in applicants, Willis J. Stetson, the Dean of Admissions recognized this years group of Early Decision candidates the "toughest pool ever."

K.C. BOBACK

K.C. is a graduate of Wilkes-Barre Junior Leadership, Class of 1998. She was a regional first place winner in the Future Business Leaders of America competition in 1997. She received a full scholarship to PA Free Enterprise Week 1998 as well as the Presidential Youth Leadership Summit and the Inaugural PA Governor's School for Excellence in Information Technology 1999 at Drexel University. She is the President of GFWC Country Crossroad Juniors. She was recognized for scholastic, civic, and athletic achievements through both the 1999 Northeast PA Youth Salute and Who's Who Among America's High School Students. K.C. is recognized as a Trustee Achievement Scholar at Wyoming Seminary Upper School where she is currently a senior. She has maintained Dean's List High Honors status. K.C. is the daughter of Dr. Karen and Buz Boback of Harveys Lake.

Dallas School District marks 'School Director Recognition Month'

January is "School Director Recognition Month," in Pennsylvania, providing communities the opportunity to honor the contributions and dedication of school directors who volunteer their time and talent to ensure a public education that makes a difference in the lives of our children. To celebrate school directors' month, the Dallas School District recognized the three members of the board who were re-elected: Mr. Ernie Ashbridge, Jr., Mr. John Litz, and Mr. Tom Russ; while welcoming back to the board Mr. Jim Richardson, who previously had served a number of years, and a new member, Mrs. Deborah Morgantini.

Tell our advertisers you saw them in The Dallas Post. They'll appreciate it, and so will we.
