Musical tells USA's story

A reviewer of the current "1776" national-touring production wrote: "From the opening drum beats and cacophonous debate in the humid, fly-besieged chamber of the Continental Congress to the surprisingly stirring conclusion, there's hardly a dull moment in this production that proves how compelling a history lesson can be.'

"1776", originally, opened on Broadway in March of 1969 and became a popular hit winning three Tony Awards including Best Musical and the prestigious NY Theatre Critics Circle Award.

After 30 years it has returned to tour the nation and will appear at the F.M. Kirby Center on Saturday, Jan. 29, at 8 p.m. The reason for its continues success is simple. To this comfortable, complacent, distracted nation, this comes as a reminder of our nation's origin and of the courage, commitment and determination of a remarkable group of men who created a new, democratic nation, free of subordination and released from obligation to any foreign power. The "1776" story is a reaffirmation that "We hold these truths to be selfevident, that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their creator with certain unalienable rights; and among these are life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.'

See "1776" at The Kirby Center in Wilkes-Barre on Saturday, Jan. 29, 2000 at 8 p.m. Tickets are $28, $38, and $45. For tickets and more information call the Kirby Box Office, 570-826-1100 or any Ticketmaster outlet 693-4100.
