BOYS BASKETBALL

Dallas 62, Lehman 59

The Mountaineers used a 20-

13 second quarter edge to help win the battle of the Back Mountain high schools last week. Matt Loftus of Lake-Lehman was actually the high scorer in the game, but the Mountaineers had more scoring distribution and shot better from the foul line in earning the win. Senior Matt Jackson led the way for Dallas with 15 points. Chuck Suppon was next with a dozen points, followed by Jay Carroll with ten points. John Simonitis and Adam Clay each added seven points. Loftus led Lake-Lehman with 16 points. Seniors Dom Castrignano (13) and Russ Mosier (11) had double digits performances as well in their last game. Dallas nailed four three-point buckets in the game while Lake-Lehman made two.

Coughlin 86, Dallas 73

Chuck Suppon's 32-point performance highlighted a nice effort by the Mountaineers, but they still fell to the mighty Crusaders in a game last week. Suppon hit a dozen shots from the field including a triple and made seven of eight foul shots. Jay Carroll collected 13 points in the game including two three-pointers. John Simonitis also attained double digits, finishing with ten points.

WRESTLING

Dallas 33, Scranton Prep 30

The Mountaineers won the final four matches, three by pinfall, in coming from behind to defeat Scranton Prep in a contest last week. Those three pins were earned by Damian Temperine (160), Jake Walter (189), and Matt Carey (275). After the contest started with a double forfeit, Scranton Prep won the first four bouts to race out to the early lead. Todd Jones at 135 earned a forfeit win at 135 to get Dallas onto the scoreboard. Lee Griffin followed at 140 with a pinfall victory. After two Scranton Prep pins, Dallas' final four came through and earned the team the victory.

Blake Bradley battled for a rebound.

Andrea Krakosky drove in for a bucket. She scored 17 points.
