Tanglefoot slated to perform at Misericordia

The acoustic folk music group Tanglefoot, of Ontario, Canada, will perform a special benefit concert at College Misericordia on Tuesday, March 28 in support of the new Women With Children Program.

Tanglefoot, well known in Canada, England and the eastern United States for their energetic music and outstanding songwriting, will perform at 8 p.m. in Walsh Auditorium.

Tanglefoot's music has been described as "combining tradition with innovation, the hilarious with the poignant, and the furious with the passionate." The five member band began in 1980 performing traditional Canadian folk music and now performs songs rooted in Celtic, French-Canadian and Ottawa Valley traditions. The most recent of their four CD's, "Full Throated Abandon", has received extensive play in Canada, the United States and the United Kingdom.

Tickets are available; the cost is $17.50 for reserved seating, $12 for general seating, and $8 for students with ID.
