their second tie of the season. Samantha Lloyd of Dallas scored the Seminary goal.

SOFTBALL

Lehman 18, Wyoming Area 12

The Lady Knights came out on top in a scoring free-for-all played at Wyoming Area's field. After falling behind 11-4 in the first two innings, Lehman shut down the Warriors' offense and came alive at the plate. Colleen Mahon went 4-for-4 with two doubles; Christine Hudak was 3-for-5 with a home run and Vicki Groff was 2-for-4 with a home run and double. April Naugle gained the win, giving up a single hit and no runs in three innings.

Dallas 2, Hanover 1

The Lady Mounts broke a 1-1 tie in the bottom of the seventh to claim their fifth win of the season. Sarah Stolarick went the distance on the mound, giving up only four hits and striking out four. Stephanie Simonitis was 2-for-3 at the plate.

Dallas 4, Wyoming Area 2

Dallas improved to 3-1 on the season with a home win against the Warriors of Wyoming Area. Sarah Stolarick had a very strong pitching performance, going the distance while striking out five and surrendering just one walk and five hits. The Mountaineers got on the board early, scoring three runs in the bottom of the first. Stephanie Simonitis, Carrie Strasser, Stolarick, and Sarah Rodgers each went 2-for-3 on the afternoon.

Dallas 11, Lake-Lehman 1

The Mountaineers dominated in the battle of the Back Mountain high schools with a 10-run victory over the Knights on Thursday. Sarah Stolarick gave up just six hits and one walk in the seven inning contest. The offensive onslaught began in the top of the first inning with four runs. Jennifer Noon and Amanda Stolarick each finished 2-for-3 with a double, while senior Sherri Kuderka finished 2-for-4 with a triple. Angie Harris collected a pair of hits for Lake-Lehman. April Naugle took the loss.

TENNIS

Wyoming Area 4, Lehman 0

Wyoming Area swept singles play in blanking the Knights. Rain prevented the completion of the doubles competition, but it made no difference as the match was already decided. Jonathon Bird at #2 singles was the only Lake-Lehman player to force three sets in the match as he took the first set before dropping the final two.

Outdoors

Trapping seasons will primarily stay the same except for that of the new Bobcat season. Those dates are as follows:

Mink and Muskrat: Nov. 18-Jan. 14.

Coyote, Fox, Opossum, Raccoon, Skunk, and Weasel: Oct. 15-Feb. 24.

Beaver: Dec. 26-March 31

Bobcat: Oct. 15-Feb. 24. Special Bobcat license required in addition to furtaker.

There are variations to some of the bag limits depending on the area that you choose to hunt, so be sure to check the game regulations book when it becomes available.

There are also some changes in the muzzleloader regulations this year. The new laws will allow muzzleloader hunters the use of mini-balls and maxi-balls. Sleeved bullets, which are considered sabots, are not permitted within these new laws. It was also adopted that the use of flintlock pistols will be permitted during the muzzleloader seasons.

DYB girls win

Rogers Tournament

Dallas Youth Basketball 8th grade girls won the championship of the 70th annual YMCA Rogers Tournament with a 33-25 victory over Newport Township. Leading the way for DYB were Shannon Thomas with a game high 12 points, followed by Rosalyn Wentko 8 points, Jackie Hardwick 7 points, and Halli Williams 6 points. Playing a good defensive game for DYB were Ashleigh King, Brooke Blase, Caitlin Dukas and Kara Ringler.

First Federal gives to Misericordia

First Federal Charitable Foundation, has awarded a $15,000 grant contribution to College Misericordia. The grant will be used towards the college's new Women with Children program. This program will provide funding for single mothers to reside on campus with their children while earning a degree. Foundation president E. Lee Beard said, "The program offers a great solution for the family as the mother strives to reach her educational goals while her child is being cared for."

Earth Day Poster Contest winners

Inkjet cartridges to be collected, recycled

The PTO of Wycallis Elementary School in Dallas is sponsoring an empty computer inkjet cartridge recycling program in conjunction with Earth Day. LPT, Inc. will make a donation for each qualifying cartridge they receive. The money collected from this community-wide drive will be used as a "seed fund" for a new environmental committee at the school. Used inkjet cartridges will be collected at each of the Dallas Schools and at the Back Mountain Memorial Library during the period of April 25, through May 2.

Jackie Warnick-Piatt named Penn Stater of the Quarter

Jackie Warnick-Piatt, Student Activities Coordinator, has been named Penn Stater of the Quarter at the Wilkes-Barre campus, announced Dr. Mary Hines, campus executive officer. The Penn Stater of the Quarter is a member of the campus community who has uniquely demonstrated special concern for the campus community; has achieved a significant honor or goal that benefits the campus; or demonstrates special dedication to the mission of the campus.

Warnick-Piatt's enthusiasm, boundless energy and positive attitude have contributed to exceptional performance in her areas of responsibility and to the support of others in their responsibilities. Her extraordinary efforts in supporting the students are reflected in the University's annual Survey of Student Satisfaction. Voting by members of the campus student clubs and organization rated Penn State Wilkes-Barre highest in the Commonwealth College.

Earth Day celebration at Wycallis

Earth Day will be celebrated on April 28, at Wycallis Elementary School. Priscilla Aldrow, fifth grade teacher, and Lynne Kosak, fourth grade teacher, have planned a variety of activities which will allow students to learn to value and care for our earth.
