

Roundup

six, both teams scored single runs in the seventh inning to send the game to extra innings. The Black Knights then scored in the bottom of the ninth inning to earn the victory. Christine Hudak doubled in that winning run with two outs for her second hit of the game. Colleen Mahon ended the afternoon with four of Lake-Lehman's fifteen hits. Winning pitcher April Naugle finished with a single and a double. Vicki Groff added a two-run double, while Tiffany Hettes ended the afternoon with two singles. Naugle pitched all nine innings on the mound, giving up seven hits and four walks while striking out a pair.

Crestwood 4, Lake-Lehman 1

Three first inning runs for Crestwood was too much to come back from as the Knights fell to the Comets on Thursday. The Crestwood pitching staff allowed just five singles to Lake-Lehman hitters, with Christine Hudak and Vicki Groff collecting two each. April Naugle struck out two on the mound.

Bishop Hoban 5, Dallas 4

After the Mountaineers tied the game in the top of the seventh to eventually send the game to extra innings, the Argents came up with a run of their own in the bottom of the ninth to hand the Mountaineers just their second loss of the season. Sarah Stolarick pitched a complete game for Dallas, striking out three and walking four. Sherri Kuderka, Sarah Rodgers, and Carrie Strasser each collected two hits offensively, with Strasser doubling for one of her hits.

Dallas 4, G.A.R. 0

Sarah Stolarick struck out batters and surrendered only two hits as the Mountaineers shut out G.A.R. on Friday afternoon in Dallas. Sarah Rodgers led the offense, collecting three hits including a double and knocking in a run. Carrie Strasser also doubled, as the Mounts scored three runs in the bottom of the first and never looked back.

BASEBALL

Crestwood 8, Dallas 7

Crestwood scored 5 runs in the top of the fourth inning and two in the top of the seventh to complete a comeback from being down 5-1 after three innings of play. After scoring at least one run in each of the first four innings, the Mountaineers did not score after that. Jeremy Harris hit a two-run home run for Dallas and scored three times to shine offensively. Josh Katyl had two hits including a home run and knocked in a pair. Harris took the loss on the mound, striking out 5.
