Nicole Seitz will be one of the featured soloists at the Degan Ballet Center performance.

Nicole Seitz featured in Degan Ballet performance

The Degan Ballet Center dancers, joined by guest professional artist Joseph Fritz of New York's Metropolitan Opera Company Ballet, and by the Butler Academy of Irish Dance will give two performances, commencing at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, and 2 p.m., Sunday, June 3-4, at the Dorothy Dickson Darte Center for the Performing Arts on the campus of Wilkes University.

Opening this program of original and traditional dance will be "The Little Mermaid," a children's ballet, choreographed by Director Kristin Degan and the late Peter Degan. Leslie Dewees of Dallas and Leigh Kosloski of Harveys Lake are cast in major supporting roles.

Contributing an ethnic flavor to the program will be guest artists from the Butler Academy of Irish Dance who will perform a number of delightful Irish folk dances.

The concluding work for these performances will be the Degan's original ballet entitled "Beethoven's Seventh."

Nicole Seitz of Dallas will be one of their featured soloists. They will be joined by professional guest artist Joseph Fritz of the Metropolitan Opera Company Ballet.

All seats for these performances are reserved. Tickets, $10, are available at the Degan Ballet Center studio and at the Darte box office just prior to each show. For information and reservations call the DBC at 825-3515 weekdays evenings or Saturdays from 12 - 5 p.m.

Sean Ziller named Muscular Dystrophy Ambassador

Sean Ziller, an 8 year old from Shavertown, has been named Goodwill Ambassador for the Northeastern Pennsylvania district of the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA).

As the Northeastern Pennsylvania's district's Goodwill Ambassador, Sean will make public appearances throughout the community to encourage volunteers in the Association's year round educational and fund raising campaigns and will also take part in a number of the District's special events.

Sean is the son of Alfred "Buddy" and Susan Ziller. Sean lives in Shavertown with his parents and brother Brian, age 12.

Sean's condition was diagnosed as Congenital Myopathy at birth. Sean has been involved with the MDA Telethon since he was three months old. At age 4 he was proclaimed Fire Chief for the day by MDA and Local 104 Wilkes-Barre Fire Department. He rode on one of the floats in the 2000 St. Patrick's Day Parade in Scranton. Sean also participates in his brother's Irish Step Dancing Program.

MDA is a voluntary health agency working to defeat 40 neuromuscular diseases through programs of worldwide research, comprehensive services, and far reaching professional and public health education.
