Abington Heights eliminates Lehman

Abington Heights freshmen combined for four goals in eliminating the veteran Lake-Lehman Black Knights from the district soccer playoffs Thursday in Kingston. The Comets held a 2-0 halftime lead and then stretched the lead to 5-1 before Lake-Lehman added two goals in the last 10 minutes of play. Janna Elston scored the first goal of the second half with Janelle Perlis getting the assist. Sara Rittenhouse and Erin Loughney scored the final two goals of the game, with assists being credited to Elston, Jennifer Frank, and Perlis. The Knights actually outshot the Comets 17-12.

Have you ever dreamed of waking up in the morning to the sounds of mature bull elk bugling nearby, but don't have the time travel out west? Well there is now a place you can do that and is relatively close to home.

The place is Majestic World Lodge & Retreat, a 900 acre private ranch located in Portage which is near Altoona. It is nestled in the beautiful Allegheny mountains and offers year round enjoyment and exceptional scenery for the whole family to enjoy. Elk, deer, and turkey can be hunted here and the resort also offers trophy trout and bass fishing.

A stream runs through the property that is home to some of the finest native brook trout fishing around and two large ponds that are home to brown trout, largemouth bass, striped bass, and other species of fish. You can fly fish, use live bait, or artificial lures to catch a fish of a lifetime.

It is also possible to hunt a mature bull elk on the property in the fall and winter. These magnificent bulls on average tip the scales at around 1,000 pounds and some of the bulls antlers would score well over 400 Boone and Crockett points. Any type of firearm may be used for elk hunts at Majestic.

If winter family fun is what you are looking for then you are in luck. Blue Knob ski resort is nearby and skiers are welcome to stay at Majestic's lodge or guest house to get away and relax from the crowd at the ski resort. Blue Knob Mountain, which peaks at an elevation of 3,100 feet, is the second highest mountain in Pennsylvania and should offer skiers a new challenge.

Majestic Lodge adjoins State

Gamelands and Blue Knob State Park is nearby. It is in these mountains that the legend of "The Lost

Children Of The Alleghenies" lives on. The legend of the missing children that were found days after their deaths is surrounded by stories of cults, witchcraft, and wild animals. Hiking to the monument where they were found makes for a nice side tour while staying at Majestic.

Also available at the retreat are wildlife and nature tours that presents many photo opportunities for photographers and nature lovers. Hiking, mountain biking and cross country skiing are other activities available.

Each room is decorated differently and every room gives off a cabin like feeling with a touch of class. If you would like an entire house to yourself a guest house is also available to visitors.

The meals at majestic are first class and very filling. If a special diet is required arrangements will be made by the staff to accommodate the needs of the particular guest.

Majestic is set up to be used for private gatherings, romantic getaways, meetings, and by executives that want to entertain their clients. While staying at the lodge visitors will experience first class accommodations, great meals and friendly staff. For more information, call 814-693-0189.

Demons win indoor title

The Back Mountain Indoor Soccer League recently completed its season with playoffs. The U-14 Division winner was the Back Mountain Demons, coached by John Bednarz and assisted by Dave Leahigh. In the final, Jason Austin and Johnathan Wood each registered a hat trick, as the Demons used a strong second half to post a 6-2 win against the Night-hawks in the Championship game. Nick Casaldi and Chris Benoit, each scored a goal for the Night Hawks, who took a 2-0 first half lead. Wood scored a goal late in the first half, to cut the margin to 2-1. Austin scored the next two goals and Wood added a pair to make it 5-2. Austin closed the scoring with a goal in the final seconds of the game.
