Sem alumni golf tournament winners

The Wyoming Seminary Alumni Association's annual golf tournament netted $16,000, the highest amount raised for the Wyoming Valley Seminary Alumni Scholarship Fund in the 16-year history of the event.

This year's tournament was dedicated to the memory of Lee J. McCarthy, Jr., beloved alumnus and long-time supporter of the school. The tournament was held Friday, May 12 at Blue Ridge Trail Golf Course in Mountaintop. The winning foursome, finishing 11 under par, were Tom Bevevino, John Bevevino Class of 1978, Scott Parkhurst, class of 1978 and John McCarthy, class of 1980.

Kingston Twp. street improvements

The Kingston Township Board of Supervisors has announced the Township's planned street improvement projects for the year 2000.

Crews will be paving the following streets: Beverly Drive, Lakeview Drive, Ellen Drive, South Lehigh Street, Rice Street, West Mt. Airy Road, Grove Street, and Old Carverton Road.

All or portions of the above streets will be resurfaced during the summer of 2000. In addition, the Green Road Paving and Storm Water project will be completed this summer.

The above projects represent an investment of over $250,000 from a variety of funding sources including the Township's Capital Improvement and State Liquid Fuel Funds.

For information contact Jeffrey K. Box, Township Manager, at 696-3809.

Summer theatre workshop at Music Box

The Music Box Players will conduct a Summer Theatre Workshop for children ages 7 to 12 for 10 sessions, June 26-30 and July 10-14. Each session will run from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. at the Music Box Dinner Playhouse, 196 Hughes St., Swoyersville.

Headed by Debbie Zehner, the workshop will introduce children to the basics of acting, singing, improvisation, mime, set and lighting design, makeup, costume design and special effects.

The enrollment fee is $150 per child with a reduction in price for each additional family member. Space is limited and early registration is suggested.

For information and to register, call 283-2195 or 1-800-698-PLAY.
