"It takes a woman," Connie Scott jokingly says in reference to her responsibility as chairman of the tent and booth committee of the 2000 Library Auction.

"I've done this for three years and I've learned that you have to be able to adapt."

Over the last 10 years, Mrs. Scott has chaired the auction and has also worked on the grounds committee. "I have a full time job but I'm a very organized woman. I work out diagrams for the tent and booth locations but there are always last minute changes. Things need more space that you might originally think. The tents are there and the guys are ready so you have to be able to make a quick decision to change things around," she explained.

This year's auction will use about 12 tents from Big Top Rentals. "They are very reliable and ready to work with us," said Scott. "It is just amazing to watch them. They come in on Sunday before the auction and have all of the tents up in a matter of hours. It is really something to see."

"The tents are just great. They are so colorful and really provide a festive air. Over the years the Odds and Ends Tent has gotten bigger and bigger. This year it is 40 x 60 feet and that's
