Dallas harriers fare well in Robbins race

The team opened its season by participating in the 26th Annual Cliff Robbins cross country races under hot and humid conditions at Kirby Park on Sept. 2. While several team members were absent, the teams produced several outstanding performances with Peter Miller (Junior) finishing 17th, Floyd Mattie (sr.) finishing 60th of 283 runners. On the girls team, Jamie Bozentka (soph.) finished 27th, Jill Youngblood (Junior) 61st, and Maria Bednash (Jr.) 71st of 223 runners.

On Wednesday, Sept. 6, the teams travelled to Athens to compete against the Athens and Waverly, NY teams in an exhibition run at Round Top Park overlooking Athens. The weather was perfect and the hilly 2.9 mile course of trails and macadem and dirt roads challenged all athletes. The Dallas boys were led to a 20-41 victory over Athens by Pete Miller (1st), 17:21, Floyd Mattie (3rd), 17:53, Matt Mark (4th), 19:16, Mike Hiscox (6th), 19:16, and Jim Appel (7th), 19:29. These same boys defeated Waverly, NY 18-37 by finishing 1st, 2nd, 4th, 5th, and 6th.

In the girl's meet against Athens, Freshman Whitney Adams (20:44) led her team to a 21-34 victory with her debut win over course record holder Jodi White (21:10). Jamie Bozentka (3rd), 22:38, Jill Youngblood (4th), 22:50, Maria Bednash (6th), 23:18, Maureen McGuire (7th), 23:59. These same young ladies defeated Waverly, NY 20-37 by finishing 1st, 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 7th.

Mini-camp Sept. 23 at Dallas for youth basketball players

A Dallas Basketball Mini Camp will be held Saturday, Sept. 23, from 9 a.m. to 12 noon at the Dallas Senior High School for kids in 3rd through 6th grade.

The camp will be run by the Dallas varsity coach Pat McCue and the J.V. coach Mike Fulton, with help from their players.

The camp will cover, proper shooting technique, ball handling, passing, positions, and defense.

Each participant will be taught skills which they can take home and practice to help them become better players. The camp will also prepare them for the upcoming DYB season.

The cost of the camp is $10, and will go to the boys Basketball Booster Club to help support our team.

Please send the child's name, grade, phone number and a check payable to Dallas Basketball Booster Club, to: Dallas Basketball Booster Club, P.O. Box 272, Dallas, PA 18612.

All registration forms must be received by Saturday, Sept. 16. For questions call Paul McCue, Basketball Booster Club President in the evening at 675-6442.

Vonderheid holds on for Huntsville championship

Sis Ertly claims third Ladies title, Rado top senior

Todd Vonderheid prevailed in an exciting finish to capture his first club championship at Huntsville Golf Club with rounds of 70, 73 and 83. Finishing one stroke behind was Brian Llewellyn with rounds of 78, 76 and 73. Other top finishers were Brian Corbett, Chad Rado and Dom Castrignano, Jr. These top 5 finalists will represent Huntsville in the annual AGA Coal Scuttle tournament later this month.

In the Ladies Club Championship, Sis Ertly captured her third championship with fine scores of 82 and 84. She also won this annual event in 1995 and 1996. Angela Kim finished a very respectable second place with scores of 91 and 83.

In the Senior Club Championship Chad Rado beat all contestants with a two round total of 156. Bob Jones finished second with a 164 over two days. Rounding out the top five was Dr. Tom Bednarek followed by Bruce Gover and Honorable A. Richard Caputo. In the Super Senior category, Dr. Earl Detrick had to go sudden death to defeat Dick Maslow for the coveted crown and retain his title as champion.

Among the juniors, Greg Mascioli continued his excellent play by shooting a 78 to win his first Junior Club Championship. Greg is a sophomore at Wyoming Seminary and along with Chris Boyle, also a member at Huntsville, is a key member of their undefeated high school team. In the 5-Hole division young Joe Bevevino won just squeaking by Alex Olsen and Tim Lambert. And in the 9-Hole flight David Janerich and Ethan Beswick tied for top honors.
