18th Annual Dallas Rotary Fall Golf Classic

The Irem Temple Country Club in Dallas was the setting on Monday for the 18th annual Dallas Rotary fall golf classic. Donations from sponsors and players help Dallas Rotary Charities support many local organizations and events throughout the year.

Rotarians accompany underprivileged children on shopping trips at Christmas time, feed the elderly at Thanksgiving, staff the Back Mountain Library food booth, clean up the highways, assist with the Luzerne County Fall Fair, continue Book Scholarships, and host group study exchanges and youth leadership camps.

"It really makes a difference in people's lives," said Kevin Smith, chairman of the event. "It takes a lot of effort from all of us, but we think it's worth it."

More than 100 golfers participated, raising $10,300 for charity.
