In recognition of her devotion to students pursuing higher education and her significant contributions to the progress of Wilkes University, alumna Karen Mason, of Dallas, received the distinguished Colonel Blazer.
 First introduced in 1979 by John J. Chwalek, Sr., the blazer is awarded each year to an area guidance counselor who is chosen by the John Chwalek Tournament Committee. Mason, a 1985 graduate of Wilkes, is the first recipient since Chwalek's death earlier this year. Wilkes University President Christopher N. Breiseth and Chwalek's son, Joe, presented Mason with the blazer during halftime of the Colonel's opening home football game.
 Mason, who served as the assistant to the dean for professional programs and enrollment at Wilkes, is currently the director of college guidance at Wyoming Seminary. Throughout her career, Mason has helped guide students through the college selection process and prepared them to perform well in the most rigorous of college environments. She attributes her students' success to the preparation they have at Seminary in the classroom and in leadership activities.
 Mason is a member of the executive committee of the Pennsylvania Association of Secondary School and College Admission Counselors and a member of the National Association of College Admissions Counselors and the College Board.
Christopher M. Banks of Hunlock Creek, was recently sworn in as the newest member of Battery C, 1st Battalion, 109th Field Artillery, Pennsylvania Army National Guard, at Plymouth. Private Banks enlisted under a program that will allow him to attend One Station Unit Training at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. He is a freshman at the University of Pittsburgh. Upon completion of his training, Private Banks will be assigned as a fire direction specialist.
