

Dallas High School names Students of the Quarter

The Dallas High School P.T.S.O., along with the Guidance Dept., recently announced the first "Student of the Quarter" awards of the 2000-2001 school year. Awards were presented by Cynthia Mitchell, Student of the Quarter Chairperson, and sponsors State Representative Phyllis Mundy and Karen and Dan Cornell of Pikes Creek Park, who presented each winner with a $100 Federal Savings Bond. The winners were:

Kevin Covert, Creative Student. Kevin Covert is a 17-year old 12th grader. He lives in Dallas Village; his parents are Kevin and Mary Kay Covert, and he has a brother, Mark. Kevin's extracurricular school activities include the marching band and the theatre; outside of school Kevin is involved in P.M.E.A. events with the District and Regional Band and the Susquehanna University Wind Ensemble. Kevin has made the honor roll, is a member of the National Honor Society, and he attended N.Y.L.C in Washington, D.C. His favorite hobby is music.

Jennifer Gross, School Spirit Student. Jennifer Gross is 17 and in 12th grade. She lives on Ryman Rd. in Dallas with her mother, Lynda Gross, and her brother, Michael Gross. Jennifer plays the trumpet in the marching, Jazz, and concert bands, and she accompanies the chorus and Girls Select Chorus on the piano. She was Creative Student of the Month last year, is a National Honor Society member, and she is also a member of the District Chorus and the District Band. Outside of school, Jennifer is an organist at her church and plays the piano at weddings and parties. Music is her special interest; she also likes animals and is particularly fond of horseback riding.

Shane Shrader, Citizen Student. Shane Shrader, a 16-year old 11th grader, lives on Holly St in Trucksville. His parents are Christopher and Linda Shrader, and he has a brother, Jesse. For the past three school years, Shane has been in the Fall Play and the Spring Play; in Stage Crew, where he was Lighting Chief this fall; Drama Club, and Brain Challenge. Shane was on the track team in 9th grade, played volleyball in 10th, and this year is on the swim team; he also was involved in Survival Skills in 10th grade. When not in school, Shane took part in the Riverside Rumble, volunteers for Vision and Showcase Theater 2000, and he works as a caddy at the Huntsville Country Club. In addition, Shane recently completed his Eagle Scout project. He enjoys hiking, biking, snow skiing, canoeing, and archery.

Timothy Faneck, Achiever Student. Timothy Faneck, a 16-year old in 11th grade, lives on Greenpond Rd. in Shavertown. His parents are Robert and Jeanne Faneck, and he has two brothers, Jeffrey and Michael Faneck. His school activities include the Student Advisory Council, Junior Steering, Knowledge Bowl, math competitions, Student Council, and the soccer team; he also plays soccer and referees outside of school, and this year was on the All State Team, while last year he was Second Team All-Conference. Timothy has also participated in the Riverside Rumble Wheelchair Race, was an American Red Cross blood drive volunteer, and is an altar server at his church. He has made First Honors consistently for the past three years. Timothy likes playing sports and video games, and his hobby is history.
