Shavertown UMC "Shoebbox" program

The children of the Adventures in Faith Sunday school program at Shavertown United Methodist Church participated in a "Shoebbox Project" for the children at the McAuley House in Plymouth. The children filled 36 shoeboxes with toiletries, books, personal items and toys for children of all ages. The boxes were then wrapped and marked for a boy or girl of the appropriate age. Shown are some of the participating children. From left to right, kneeling: Michael Nixon, Bryan Morgan, Matthew Evans, Hunter Root, Steven Ash. Standing: Sarah Spess, Adam Stofila, Danny Morgan, Catherine Coslett, Elliott Anderson, Chelsea Martin, Meghan McCarty. Rear: Krystal Scales, Paige Williams, Kelsey Maas, and Donald Michalisin.

Shavertown Fire Co.'s video still available

The Shavertown Fire Co.'s 75th-anniversary souvenir video, which is full of historic information and pictures, is still available.

The video details the early history and development of the fire company, Shavertown, local schools, sports programs, and recent development. There are also brief histories of the three churches served by the Shavertown Fire Co.: St. Paul's Lutheran, St. Therese's Roman Catholic, and Shavertown United Methodist.

This half-hour video makes a great gift, particularly for family members from the Back Mountain who have since moved away. Many area residents will find family members — or perhaps even themselves — in the scenes depicted.

The video is $19.95 per copy, two for $35. It is for sale through the fire co. and its individual members. Call 696-3212 to order.
