Simonitis and Chuck Suppon along the front line also reached double digits in scoring. Simonitis recorded a dozen points, while Suppon had 10 points and grabbed 11 boards. Only three Mountaineers scored points.

Dallas 60 Wyoming Area 54

The boys made it a sweep of Wyoming Area as the Dallas squad defeated the Warriors of Wyoming Area, as the girls had done the night before. Jay Carrollis 25 points provided plenty of offense to help Dallas comeback from an 8-point halftime deficit. John Simonitis added 16 points in the game. Dan Fetko added five points, including a three-pointer. Wyoming Area still led by a point heading into the final quarter, but a 23-16 Dallas advantage gained the Mounts the six-point win.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

Crestwood 64, Dallas 53

Crestwood avenged a loss during its tournament in defeating Dallas by 11 points last Wednesday night in conference play. The Mountaineers were able to capture only the second quarter in the loss. Jackie Hardwick led Dallas in the scoring column, finishing with 15 points. Rosalyn Wentko added 13 points, and Shannon Thomas finished with a dozen. The free throw edge was key, as Crestwood converted 19 of 30, while Dallas only made 14 of 29 chances

Dallas 68, Wyoming Area 66

The Mountaineers held off a vicious Warrior comeback as Dallas ended its losing streak. Meredith Lacey caught fire from behind the arc, converting five three-point field goals and finishing with a game-high 30 points. Early the Mountaineers seemed to be cruising, holding a 19-7 lead after one. Shannon Thomas had a pair of 3s for Dallas to finish with six points. Rosalyn Wentko was the only other Lady Mountaineer to finish the game in double figures with 14 points. Nanticoke 58, Lehman 44

Nanticoke rebounded after a one-point deficit after the first period to handily defeat Lake-Lehman in action last week. Kieran Lucarino led the Knights in scoring with 14 points. She was followed by Danielle Kern, who had 13 points. Lisa Wasser added eight and Kari Maskalis six in a losing

WRESTLING

Berwick 43. Lehman 21

A young and impressive Berwick team defeated Lake-Lehman in an early conference surprise. John Houssock got things going well for Lake-Lehman, winning by decision 7-0. Aaron Kubasik (119) and Jeff Taylor (125) had early pins for the Knights, but after Tayloris victory Berwick won the next seven bouts to build the comfortable lead. Matt Carey in the heavyweight class had a pinfall for the remaining Lake-Lehman

Valley West 47, Dallas 12

Todd Jones and Darrell Evans each won by decision as Dallas fell hard to Wyoming Valley West in action last week. A double forfeit at 112, a forfeit win for the Spartans at 103, and decisions for the guests at 140 and 152 were the only other matches in which Valley West did not earn pinfalls. Jones won his match 8-6, while Evans won 5-2.

Lehman 30, Pittson 27

Two pinfalls and four decisions proved to be enough for the Knights to knock off the Patriots in wrestling action Saturday night. Aaron Kubasik (125) and Bob Morris (160) earned two very big pins in the match. Kelby Morgan (119), Jeff Taylor (130), Willie Webber (152), and Ed Becker (171) won by decision in order to earn some more crucial points. This was a nice win for Lake-Lehman after being defeated earlier in the week by Berwick.
