Back Mountain residents in 'Guys and Dolls'

"Guys and Dolls," the current production by Little Theatre of Wilkes-Barre, is the third show of its 78th consecutive season, and the third time in the past 40 years that the Frank Loesser musical has been staged in the North Main Street theatre. Bernadine Vojtko, Director and Choreographer, has announced that the large cast has a number of Back Mountain residents playing roles in the production.

Performance dates are March 16, 17, 23, 24, 25, 2001, at The Little Theatre, 537 North Main Street, Wilkes-Barre.

The musical is based on Damon Runyon's short story "The Idyll of Miss Sarah Brown." Guys and Dolls eventually became the fifth longest-running Broadway musical of the 50's.

The story revolves around Nathan Detroit, the organizer of the oldest established permanent floating crap game in New York, who bets fellow gambler Sky Masterson that Sky can't make the next girl he sees fall in love with him. The next girl Sky sees happens to be Miss Sarah Brown, a pure-at-heart Salvation Army type reformer, and the stage is set for an evening of hilarious complications. For more information and seat reservations, call Little Theatre's Box Office at (570) 823-1875 and leave word. Little Theatre can also be reached at www.ltwb.org.

rus member. Standing: Adrienne Cebrick, Dallas, Hot Box dancer/chorus; Alison Taroli, Dallas, Hot Box dancer/chorus; Brad Lothridge, Shavertown, chorus; Michael Miller, Dallas, chorus; Roger Samuels, Harveys Lake, Angie the Ox and chorus; Alix Styliniski, Dallas, Agatha and chorus member; Diane Dwyer, Harveys Lake, chorus.

Also in the chorus and one of the "Hot Box" dancers, Mallory Carey, Dallas. John Daniels, Wilkes-Barre, is Music Director of the show.
