Pajama Game at Lake-Lehman by Donora Hillard

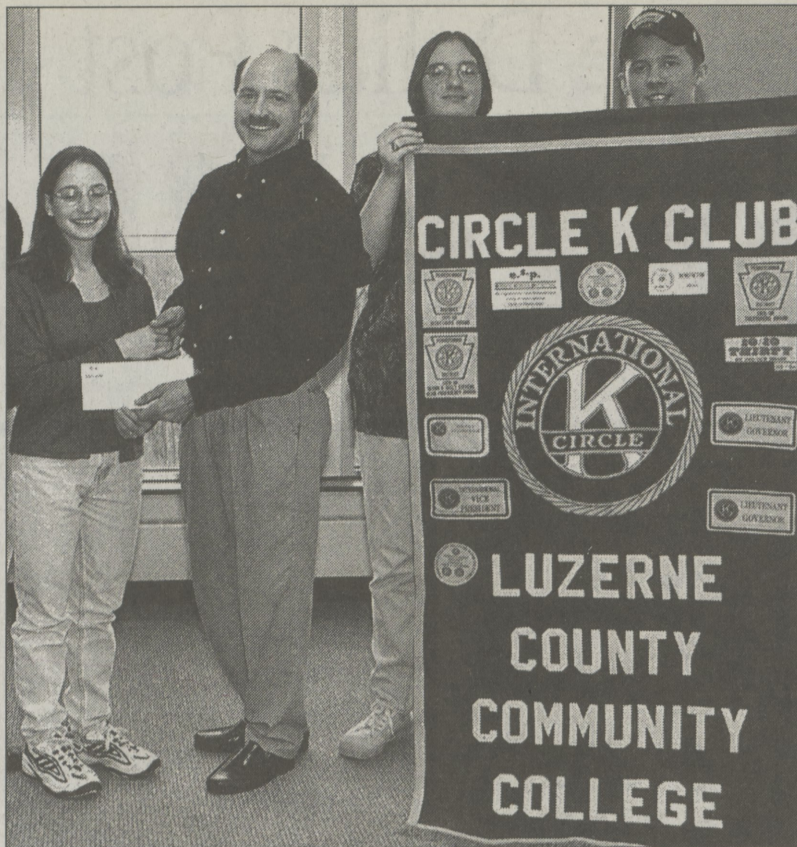

The Lake-Lehman theatre department will perform its annual musical March 30, 31, and April 1. This year's musical is "The Pajama Game." Set in the 1950's, it tells the story of the Sleep-Tite Pajama Factory and the complications which take place within, including an argument between union members and management over wages, and a romance in the workplace.

Lake-Lehman has always made an effort to put on successful and elaborate musical productions, and this one is no exception. Miss Gail Meeker is the drama director; Mr.

Jonathan Pineno is the music director; Mr. Ed Richards is the sound coordinator; and Miss Diane Sherman is the acting coach. Some of the major chorus numbers include "Once a Year Day," "Racing With the Clock," and "Seven and a Half Cents." Senior Laura Mitchell has been called upon to choreograph the dances; she also formulated the routines for last year's musical, "Bye Bye Birdie."

Other seniors participating in "The Pajama Game" are: Matt Hinton, David Kovalik, Lauren Laver, Jill Sands and Elliot Wright. The main characters are Sid Sorokin and Babe Williams, who will be portrayed by seniors Gordon Stranksy and Laura Yankowski, respectively. Sid, the new manager hired to run the factory, falls in love with Babe, who is a member of the grievance committee, in addition to being a worker and a union member. The two fall in love but are divided by their differences, including the union and the seven and a half cent raise it desires. Those intrigued will have to come out and see the play to see if Sid gets his girl. Hope to see you there!
