Cucanandy to play

St. Patrick's Day may be gone, but it's never too late to enjoy a great Irish band. Cucanandy, an exciting Celtic-based ensemble from North Carolina, will play at Chicory House on Friday, March 30 at 8 p.m. Chicory House concerts are held in the Community Room at St. Stephen's Church, 35 S. Franklin St., Wilkes-Barre, across from Boscov's parking lot. Doors open at 7:30 and refreshments are available.

Cucanandy offers a unique blend of traditional Celtic music and step dancing, delighting audiences around the country with their energy and bright tapestry of sounds. Percussive dancer Malke Rosenfeld appeared in Riverdance with the group Footworks during the show's 1996 London run and has also performed solo. Flute, guitar and dulcimer player Mike Casey enchants listeners with his stories and music, while singer/guitarist Stephanie Johnston's strong, clear voice provides what has been described as a supple and ethereal sound. Jason Cabe, the group's fiddler, has lived in Cork, Dublin and County Clare, where he immersed himself in Ireland's melodic fiddle traditions.
