

Writing! magazine contest winners

Dallas Middle School eighth grader Amanda Nichols placed first in Writing! magazine's writing competition. Amanda's story, "Mid-Summer Nights," will be published in the national magazine's April/May edition. In addition, she will receive $150 in prize money. Cara Bestwick, another eighth grader, received an honorable mention for her essay "Touching Time." All eighth grade students wrote submissions for the contest and the English department forwarded about 30 entries to the magazine. Pictured at right, from left, Miss Lisa Niewinski; Amanda Nichols, first place winner who will have her short story published in the national magazine; Cara Bestwick, who received honorable mention, and Mrs. Nancy Ferko.

Eby earns full scholarship

Elizabeth A. Eby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barry L. Eby, Dallas, a junior at Dallas High School, has been granted a full scholarship to attend Pennsylvania Free Enterprise Week 2001 on the campus of Lycoming College, Williamsport. Pennsylvania Free Enterprise Week is a week-long, national award-winning economic education program offering students and teachers an inside look at the private enterprise system and how the free market functions. Elizabeth will attend week 1 of the four one-week sessions offered this summer. Approximately 1,200 students from across the Commonwealth have received scholarships, which cover the cost of room, board, materials and scheduled activities. She will join with business people to experience the challenge of competition through a business management simulation, and will assume the roles of top management for fictitious companies, and will hear top business leaders discussing topics such as business ethics, the stock market, and careers in business.
