Trout fishing changes along Harveys Creek

A real estate transaction involving land along Harveys Creek in Luzerne County means trout stocking and fishing in the area will be restricted this year.

This year the Pavlick Road to Jackson Road section of the creek will not be stocked and will be closed to the public.

The two remaining sections of the creek totaling 5.4 miles will be stocked again this year with approximately 3,400 trout.

The Fish and Boat Commission's complete pre-season and in-season trout-stocking schedule is available at www.fish.state.pa.us.
