

Cabaret

John will be doing a solo rendition of Frank Sinatra's New York, New York and Ken will be singing 'All I Ask Of You' with Amy Koshinski.

"Singing is my thing and this allows me to do that with other kids who have the same interests as me," said Nicole Sutton. She will accompany herself on the piano for 'Save the Best for Last' and will sing 'Shy from Once Upon A Mattress' as a solo act.

Sophomore Katje Brown has been singing for years. "I sing with my sisters Jolinda and Bethany," she said. "We just got a call from a producer who wants us to make a CD. That's kind of neat," Katje said. Her sister, Bethany who is a senior at Dallas, plans to attend college in Australia next year as a singing major.

Doors open at 6:30 p.m. for Cabaret Night and there will be a $3 charge for students and senior citizens and $5 for adults. Refreshments are included.

"We're doing this as a fund raiser for the chorus. We go to New York once a year and we're trying to participate in more competitions. Also, we always need more music. This will help defray some of those costs and cut down on travel costs for the students," said Miss Palfev.

The chorus traveled to New York last week to see the Broadway production of Les Miserables.

"Singing is my thing and this allows me to do that with other kids who have the same interests as me."
