

Community Photo Album

The spring and fall craft shows are the major fund raisers for the Dallas High School Soccer Club. The money raised from the craft shows help support five $500 scholarships for senior players, letterman jackets, annual soccer trip and the soccer banquet. To take advantage of the proceeds, players are asked to sell a minimum of 25 raffle tickets and help at the craft show. The parent support is what makes it all possible. From left; Blanche George, spring craft show coordinator; Lesley Douglas, fall 2001 craft show coordinator; Christine Shiber, Rita Recchia, Diane Domzalski, and Joe Kerestes.

David Glicini, tenth grader, puts a smile on to sell raffle tickets for the Dallas High School Soccer team at the craft show.

This ceramic Easter Bunny catches the eyes of Irene Long, Kingston, and Dorothy Sarnick, Plains, at the Dallas High School Spring Soccer Craft Show.

Grandma tells Samantha Starr, Benton, to pick her favorite, but she has so many choices.

Personalized dog and cat door mats are Haydee DiRaimondo's specialty. She has been customizing mats at shows for about six years.

Harvey's Lake resident, Joe Penxa, showed off his handy work with his carved tulips and wooden toys. He signs each piece with his logo MATL (Made at the Lake) 10-16 which are the numbers that correspond to the letters J and P in the alphabet.

Liz Remakus and Sarah Remakus stop to sample the dip at Classy Crocks and Dips during their mother-daughter day out.

Susan Polinchak, a 1977 Dallas High School Graduate, purchases homemade lollipops from Margret Koshinski, Larksville.

Rose Slavinski, Mountain Top, said she always comes to the craft show because they always have some beautiful things.

Dallas High School
Soccer Club
Craft Fair

POST PHOTOS/ HEATHER B. JONES