

Fine arts students perform for the public

The Wyoming Seminary fine and Performing Arts Department will present its annual Weekend of Music program on Fri., April 27 and Sun., April 29, in the Great Hall, 228 Wyoming Ave., Kingston, just north of Kingston Corners. The concerts are free and open to the public.

On Fri., April 27, the program will begin at 8 p.m. and will feature Sem's music students in small ensembles and in the Jazz Band. The Sunday concert will be held at 3 p.m. and will include vocal music by the Chorale and the Madrigal Singers, as well as a performance by the Seminary Orchestra. Both concerts will offer a wide variety of music.

For more information, call 270-2190.

Bishop O'Reilly presents spring concert

Montessori Spring Auction, April 21

The Parents' Association of Wyoming Valley Montessori School will hold its 11th Annual Spring Auction, "A Garden of Delights," on Sat., April 21, at the Ramada Inn in Wilkes-Barre. Proceeds benefit the school's educational programs. Doors open at 6 p.m. for a Silent Auction, with dinner and Live Auction to follow. Items donated by local and national merchants and businesses are featured along with goods and services provided by friends and families of the school. In a long-standing tradition at the school, each classroom makes a contribution to the auction, such as a quilt, on which the students themselves have worked. Children two through 12 years old enjoy making a special keepsake for the event. Advance dinner reservations may be made by calling 288-3708. Admission to the Live auction only is $10 after 8 p.m. The public is invited to attend.
