The community service program at Wyoming Seminary's Upper School completed its second annual food drive, collecting a variety of non-perishable food items from students, faculty and staff. The two-week drive, which gathered 1,855 items, exceeding the project's 1,500 item goal. The food was donated to the Northeast Regional Food Bank.From left: Lindsay Romanowski, Shavertown; Alexis Anselmi, Dallas; and Sarah Goodwin, Harveys Lake.

Pambianco to attend free enterprise week

John Pambianco, son of John and Pamela Pambianco from Trucksville and a junior at Dallas High School has been granted a full scholarship to attend Pennsylvania Free Enterprise Week 2001 on the campus of Lycoming College, Williamsport.

Pambianco will attend a one-week session this summer. Approximately 1,200 students from across the Commonwealth have received scholarships, which cover the cost of room, board, materials and scheduled activities. Funds for scholarships are contributed by businesses or community organizations.

Participants will join with business people to experience the challenge of competition through a business management simulation. They will assume the roles of top management for fictitious companies

In addition to the management simulation, participants will hear top business leaders discussing topics such as business ethics, the stock market, and careers in business.
