Announcement of the 2000 Crop Fresh Russet Potato Diversion Program (PDP)

Regulations for the 2000 crop of Fresh Russet Potatoes Diversion Program (PDP) have been published to encourage the domestic consumption of the 2000 crop by diverting them from normal channels of trade and commerce.

Eligible producers are those producers who produced all types and varieties of 2000 crop fresh Russet potatoes, except sweet potatoes.

The PDP is available to fresh russet potato producers who divert their potato production from the normal channels of trade and commerce between April 13, 2001, and May 13, 2001. Sign-up for PDP begins May 14, 2001, and ends June 13, 2001.

Eligible producers may file an application anytime during this sign-up period. Producers shall file form FSA-117 for payment at the county office nearest to the producer's place of residence, or if the producer is already an FSA customer, where the producer's records are maintained. All PDP applications must be submitted to the applicable county office by COB June 13, 2001.

Producers who would like more information should contact the Luzerne County Farm Service Agency at 911 West Main Street, Plymouth, Pa., 18651-2799 or call 779-0732.

Registration is now open for 'Summer at Sem 2001'

Registration is now open for "Summer at Sem 2001" Wyoming Seminary's extensive summer program for primary, middle-school and high-school students in sports, academics and performing arts.

Programs for primary students (ages three to ten) will run from June 25 through July 20. Students can register for one, two, three or all four weeks.

Middle-school and high-school summer courses are slated for June 25 through July 20; two-week and four-week courses available.

High-school students who want an away-from-home experience this summer can live on the Kingston campus during summer programs. The residence halls will be home to a supervised, structured summer program.

Summer sports camps are also an important part of Summer at Sem. Blue Knights Sports Camp is a six-week camp that covers a wide range of co-ed sports and recreation for students ages eight to 14 beginning June 18. The Lady Blue Knights field hockey clinic will be June 11-15 and girls basketball camp will take place June 18-22.

For more information and a complete catalog or to register for summer programs, call Wyoming Seminary at 270-2186 or e-mail sensum@wyomingseminary.org.
