

Laser show at Dallas Middle School

Dallas Middle School students recently attended an assembly program entitled "Laser: the Light Fantastic-Science, Fun and Fact," presented by Helen Stevens, of Stevens Studios. Students learned how lasers work and discussed the modern uses of laser technology.

Dallas Middle School parent orientation

The Dallas Middle School will hold a parent orientation on Wed. May 9, at 7 p.m. for the parents of fifth grade students who will be attending the middle school next year. The program will begin in the auditorium with a general overview of the program presented by Mr. Martinelli, principal, and Mr. Reinert, assistant principal. Guidance counselors Mrs. Raelene Olszewski and Mr. Michael Shevock will also be on hand to answer any questions. Following the general meeting, the student council will lead small groups of parents on a tour of the building. The sixth grade teachers will be in their rooms to greet the parents. All parents are encouraged to attend.

Pope inducted into Who's Who

Jayson Pope has been included among the 57 undergraduate students from Ithaca College named to the 2001 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.
