L-L HIGH SCHOOL BAND DOES IT AGAIN

Lake-Lehman High School Award-Winning Band did it again. They won two firsts and a second place in competition and came within four points of winning overall honors. Members of the band, accompanied by Director John Miliauskas and his assistant, Jonathan Pineno, traveled by Martz bus to Orlando, Fla. where they competed in the Great Southern Contest of Champions "Spring Fling".

There is only one primary race in Dallas Borough this year, as Republicans Paul LaBar and Delmar Besecker compete for the Republican nod to run for mayor. Christine Mascali has the Democratic nomination locked up. Winner of the fall election will succeed outgoing Republican Jim Davies. Dave Williams of Dallas, won the Pennsylvania State Conference title at the number 6 singles position as the Bloomsburg State College tennis team won its third consecutive state title.

Hand artwork displayed

Original paintings and small collector's prints depicting the Wyoming Valley and the surrounding communities will be on display at the Luzerne National Bank, Public Square, W-B thru May 23. The artwork, all produced within the past few years by artist Sue Hand, depicts many Wyoming Valley landmarks including the intersection of River and South Streets, the old culm bank along the Cross Valley Expressway near exit 3; many views of the Susquehanna River, scenes of Pittston, Kingston, Wyoming, and other specific local landmarks. Many of the prints are from works featured in her Millennium Collection.

As their way of celebrating May's Fine Arts Month and to honor the proud history and promising future of Wyoming Valley, the Luzerne National Bank invites the public to view the work of Hand at their new office at 67-69 Public Square through Wed., May 23, during regular banking hours.
