CANCER BASICS

Q: Why is celebrating life important to the Family of Survivors?

A: With nearly 9 million cancer survivors in the United States today, there are very few people who have not been personally touched by cancer. These individuals (patients, family members, caregivers, friends, and health care professionals) are all members of the Family of Survivors. They've learned that celebrating each day and celebrating life is important and that it can help alleviate fears that accompany a cancer diagnosis. This celebration can be done in many forms, whether on an individual basis, with family, or with the entire Family of Survivors.

Members of the Family of Survivors can celebrate life with NRCI at the 9th Annual Survivors Celebration, Sunday June 10, 1-4 p.m., at Montage. To register for the free event, please call:
