Generation. He won the Pulitzer Prize for Fiction in 1953 for "The Old Man and the Sea", and the Nobel Prize for Literature in 1954, and won generations of faithful readers during his lifetime and posthumously as well. "The Sun Also Rises" is one of their all-time favorites.

The morning group will resume its meetings in September.

Pat Oliveira of the Monday evening book discussion group offers this review of "The Dress Lodger", by Sheri Holman. "It is an historical novel set in the 1830's during the cholera epidemic in Sunderland, England. Those who read the book found it interesting and educational, and would recommend it to someone who enjoys a history-based novel. The narrative is very interesting as the story is told by the voices of the dead who speak to characters in the book, a style used by Charles Dickens. The book also had great insight into the beginnings of modern medicine as we know it today -- especially the field of autopsy".

Pam added that some of the group met the author at the Times Leader/Tudor Book Store discussion, and got some background into the inner workings of the book. She says that Sheri Holman is a very witty and animated writer who thoroughly enjoyed doing the research for the book and loves her job.

The group will meet on Thursday, June 28, at 7 p.m. at Little Nicky's to discuss "The Plain Truth", by Jodi Picoult. All are welcome.

Styling Studio also donated the raffle tickets, said Joanne.

"I hope someone gets the quilt that will appreciate it," said Marion.

The women plan to continue with the Friendship Quilters group. They will help each other to make personal quilts.

Working on the quilt was a joy for first-time quilter Janet Zachary, Dallas. "I still have a lot to learn, but I'm sure these great ladies will teach us everything they know," she said.

Tickets for the Back Mountain Friendship Quilters quilt are $1 each and can be purchased at the library or from a member.
