Car flips on Lower Demunds Road

An accident on Lower Demunds Road sent one woman to the hospital on Thursday, June 7. Kimberly A. Stesney, Kingston, was traveling north on Lower Demunds Road at 3:21 p.m. just past Fairground Road in her 2001 Saturn. While rounding a slight curve in the road, the vehicle crossed over into the south bound lane and hit the guard rail. The vehicle traveled approximately 20 feet on the guard rail before flipping over, onto the roof. According to the accident report filed with Dallas Township Police, Stesney reached down to get her cigarettes and took her eyes off the roadway at the time of the accident. She was taken to Wilkes-Barre General Hospital from the accident scene.
