MR. AND MRS. JOHN SUSANIN

Moreland and Susanin unite in marriage

Amy Frances Moreland, Wayne, and John Howell Susanin, Philadelphia, were married November 11, 2001 at The Church of the Holy Trinity on Rittenhouse Square, Philadelphia. The Rev. Terrence C. Roper officiated.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Albert Moreland, Jr., Athens, Ga., graduated from Athens Academy in Athens, Ga.; Roanoke College, Salem, Va. where she earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and economics; and Penn State University where she earned a master's degree in business administration. She is a regional vice president for the fund raising consulting firm Goettler Associates, Inc., Bryn Mawr.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andre George Susanin, Wynnewood and Harveys Lake and grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. John T. Howell, Jr., Wilkes-Barre, graduated from the Episcopal Academy, Merion; University of Richmond, Richmond, Virginia where he earned a bachelor's degree in international studies; and Temple University where he earned a master's degree in business administration. He is a commercial real estate broker with Smith Mack Oncor International, Wayne.

A reception was held at The College of Physicians of Philadelphia. The couple spent their honeymoon in South Africa and Zimbabwe. They reside in Wayne.

Lipka and Pettit honored

Lake Silkworth Area Lions honored club members Stephen Lipka and Wayne Pettit with Melvin Jones Fellowships, the highest form of recognition offered by Lions Clubs International Foundation to acknowledge an individual's dedication to humanitarian service. Past District Governor Tony Stefanowicz, who was named a Progressive Melvin Jones Fellow at District 14W's recent cabinet meeting, presented the Fellowships to Lipka and Pettit at a recent club meeting held at the Red Rooster Restaurant, Pikes Creek. Lions honored, from left: Tony Stefanowicz, Wayne Pettit, Stephen Lipka, Attorney David Lipka.

Fireworks will be at fairgrounds

'All politics is local'

Thomas "Tip" O'Neill
 Former Speaker of the House

Shouldn't your advertising be, too?

Love him or hate him, Tip O'Neill knew one thing - when the votes are counted, it doesn't matter what people who live outside your district think about you. That's as true in the Back Mountain as it is in Back Bay, so if you're planning campaign advertising for a local office, put it where it will count the most...in The Dallas Post. The Dallas Post is all local, all the time. Our readers are among the most influential and active in the region, so getting their vote might mean getting even more - their influence with friends and neighbors. Sure, the city papers can claim more circulation, but what good does it do if the readers live in Wilkes-Barre, Pittston or Mountaintop? Not a bit.

Put your advertising where the votes are - in The Dallas Post. Call today for low rates and other information.
