Dancers kick off cancer campaign

Ballroom I recently held the kickoff for the Ballroom I "Campaign for Cancer."

It was an all-American patriotic setting as the evening opened with a touching Lee Greenwood rendition of "Born in the USA," sung by Jim Mundy.

The ballroom dancers enjoyed food, fun and fellowship in an all american theme. Three spotlight dances highlighted the evening.

Cecelia and Chet Williams did their wedding dance in a most romantic fashion.

Dr. John and Joanne Presper danced a foxtrot in a very flowing and beautiful display.

D.J. for the evening Ned Hartman and his wife Lois did their rendition of the Argentine Tango in a breathtaking fashion.

On Sat., July 28, a benefit dance will be held at Ballroom I, Pittston, with all proceeds going to the American Cancer Association.

Everyone is invited; reservations are necessary and can be made by calling 883-1020 no later than July 25.

Youth crusade comes to Cross Creek Church

Cross Creek Community Church, at 370 Carverton Rd., Trucksville, is presenting the Neighborhood Bible Time Youth Crusade, a unique and dynamic program for all youth in the greater Back Mountain area.

The crusade begins Sun., evening, Aug. 5 at 6:30 p.m., and will continue thru Fri., concluding with the Friday Night Presentation Award Program.

Pastor Dave Martin extends a cordial invitation to all youth ages 4-19, regardless of denomination, to participate in this week of special activity.

Free transportation can be provided. A bus will be running in various areas in Trucksville. Neighborhood Bible Time is from 6:30 to 9 p.m. each evening, Sun. thru Fri.

Each may bring a Bible and a friend. For further Bible Time info call 696-0399.
