

Kate Weiss in college honor society

Kate Weiss of Dallas has accepted membership in the National Society of Collegiate Scholars (NSCS) and will be honored during a campus ceremony this fall at Boston University.

KATE WEISS

A 1999 graduate of Dallas High School, Kate completed her sophomore year in the College of Communications and has been named to the dean's list for the second consecutive semester at Boston University. Her plans include continuing her studies in public relations in London during her junior year. Other activities include coaching track & field and field hockey at the Windsor School, Boston.

She is the daughter of Jane Austin, Dallas, and William Weiss, Kingston.

Fela named to Who's Who

For her academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities and potential for continued success, Jennifer Fela, Harveys Lake was selected for Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. Jennifer was one of 47 Wilkes University Students to receive this honor.

JENNIFER FELA

ies and Colleges. Jennifer was one of 47 Wilkes University Students to receive this honor.

Levinson named to dean's list

Jeffrey B. Levinson of Dallas, was named to the dean's list at Bates College as a result of his scholastic standing during the second semester of the 2000-01 academic year. Levinson, a first-year student, is the son of Howard and Susan Levinson, Dallas. A member of the Bates Representative Assembly, the college's student government, Levinson is a 2000 graduate of Dallas High School.

Carroll receives scholarship

Timothy Carroll II, son of Mayor and Mrs. Timothy Carroll, Sr., was the proud recipient of the Mayors 2001 Scholarship Award, awarded by the Association of Mayors of the Boroughs of Pennsylvania. Jim and his family traveled to the Hershey Convention Center to receive the award among guest speaker George Stephanopolis and 900 plus Borough Mayors and elected officials.

Timothy has also been awarded the Moreau Scholarship from Kings College where he has been accepted into the McGowan Business Program for business accounting.

Tim graduated in June from Bishop O'Reilly High School and was named a four year member of the National Honors Society and Who's Who Among High School Students. At graduation, Tim received the Presidents Award of Educational Excellence.

He is an active member of Dallas Fire and Ambulance and is attending E.M.T. classes to further his volunteer services.

Eby attends medical leadership forum

Elizabeth Eby, Dallas, was accepted to attend the National Youth Leadership Forum on Medicine (NYLF/MED), which took place in San Francisco, Calif. from Jun. 24 to Jul. 3. NYLF/MED is a career development program for high school students who demonstrate academic excellence, leadership potential and an interest in medicine.

ELIZABETH EBY

Eby joined 350 other high school students from around the country. In addition to site visits to cutting-edge medical schools and clinical facilities, Eby heard from and had the opportunity to interact with leaders within the medical field. Students had up-close personal contact with physicians, surgeons, researchers, scientists and medical educators as they got behind the scenes to view these professionals at work.

Penn State Wilkes-Barre is now a designated Autodesk Training Center (ATC) in conjunction with Pennsylvania college of Technology, Williamsport. This recognition will enable Penn State to deliver authorized, instructor led training in a wider variety of AutoCAD applications than was previously possible.
