

Threshold needs volunteers

The 'Threshold' program at Chase Prison is seeking volunteers for the program beginning in September.

Threshold is a decision-making program which is taught to inmates at the correctional facility in Dallas who are about to be released. The Threshold course is taught by volunteers, on a one-to-one basis over a period of nine weeks. The only prerequisite to becoming a volunteer is to be a caring person who wants to reach out to someone about to make a new beginning. There will be a training session on Sat. and Sun., Sept. 8 and Sept. 9.

For more information, contact Edna Vivian at 825-9560.

Misericordia Choral Society seeks members

College Misericordia's Choral Society is looking for new members. The invitation goes out to members of the community as well as any students, faculty, and staff. No audition is necessary. They will be accepting new members until Sept. 18.

Rehearsals will be held Tuesday evenings from 7 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. in Kennedy Lounge in the College's Banks Center. The first rehearsal will be Tuesday, Aug. 28. Music for this semester will consist of Christmas music from France and England, including the Christmas Oratorio by Camille Saint-Saens.

For more information, call Dr. John Curtis at 674-6739 or e-mail jc Curtis@misericordia.edu.

MOVERS & SHAKERS
