The couple has three children: Jane Ventre, Scranton; Robert, Wilkes-Barre; Richard, Harrisburg. They have five grandchildren: Jennifer and Jonathan Ventre; Elly, Valerie, and William Paul. They have one great grandchild, Torrin Bergstrasser.

The couple will celebrate 60 years together with family and friends.

Celebrity Luncheons announce 2001-2002 season

Celebrity Luncheons will kick-off Thursday, September 22 with Arun Gandhi. Gandhi carries within himself the same guiding principles as his grandfather, the legendary peacefighter and spiritual leader, Mohandas K. Gandhi, also known as Mahatma Gandhi.

After leading successful projects for economic and social reform in India, Gandhi came to the United States in 1988 to complete research for a comparative study on racism in America. In 1991, Arun and his wife founded the M.K. Gandhi Institute for nonviolence, headquartered at Christian Brothers University in Memphis. The Institute's mission is to foster understanding of non-violence and to put that philosophy to practical use through workshops, lectures and community outreach programs.

Other guest celebrities slated for the 2001-2002 series include: Henry Haller on Oct. 18, Jane Bryant Quinn on April 25, and David Baldacci on May 9.

The first two luncheons will be held at the Woodlands Inn and Resort and the two spring luncheons will be held at Genetti's Hotel, both in Wilkes-Barre.

Guest celebrities speak from 11 a.m.-noon, followed by a question and answer period. Lunch is served at 12:30 p.m. Season tickets are $165 or single tickets are available at $50 each. For tickets or sponsorship opportunities, call 696-3967. Gift certificates are available.
