Northeast Regional Cancer Institute
CANCER BASICS
Q: What is Cancer Survivors Park?
A: Cancer Survivors Park, located within McDade Park, Scranton, was created by NRCI as a tangible tribute to everyone who has been touched by cancer. The park is a tranquil place for individuals to enjoy in their own way, and offers a place for personal reflection concerning the impact of cancer. Gracing the park are rows of colorful spires bearing hundreds of hand-painted tiles created by cancer survivors from NEPA. Engraved brick pavers with heartfelt messages line the pathways around the spires. NRCI continues to add newly painted tiles and engraved pavers to the park.
If you've been affected by cancer, please join us for the 1st annual Family of Survivors Program at Cancer Survivors Park on Saturday, October 13, 10:30 a.m. To register, please call NRCI at 941-7984.
