

A weekend to come home

Both Back Mountain high schools celebrated homecoming last weekend, with bands, parades and football games.

There was a decidedly patriotic feel to this year's celebrations, as students, parents and administrators showed their colors while America responds to the horrific attacks of Sept. 11.

The Lake-Lehman freshman class float displayed the patriotism of more than 60 students.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lussi were very excited for their daughter Joelle who was named Lake-Lehman High School's 2001 Homecoming Queen.

Lake-Lehman's 2001 Homecoming Queen Joelle Lussi was driven around the football field by Chris Teetsel.
