Brad Lothridge led Joe Bednash and the rest of the Dallas band onto the field.

Dallas High School hosted a Tournament of Bands Sunday at the high school fields. Six bands competed for prizes and pride, with Lake-Lehmann winning Group 1 with a total score of 86.7. As the host, Dallas did not compete, but performed an exhibition routine, garnering a score of 81.25.

The Dallas "pit crew," who help wheel the equipment on the field, watched with anticipation. Todd Hunter, band director, is second from left.

Amy Withers twirled a rifle in a display of dexterity.
