

Community Photo Album

Lori Ragozzo held her little lion, Austin.

Cub Scouts joined the parade. From left: Tyler Morgan, Adam Goring, Christopher Clemson and Ryan Hogan.

Above, Lynn Sheehan drove the Dallas Fire & Ambulance 1927 Mack in the parade. He was joined by Len Roginski and Cortney O'Brien, dressed as a bride.

Kiwanis members worked the stage, from left: Joe Schwartz, Ted Dymond, Charlie Kishbaugh and Ron Viglone.

Dallas Kiwanis Club Annual Halloween Parade

Prettiest - Melissa Tucker, as a blushing bride.

The annual Halloween Parade, sponsored by the Dallas Kiwanis Club, drew dozens of costumed children on a chilly Sunday. Kiwanis is assisted by members of the Back Mountain Business and Professional Association, who judge costumes in five categories, and put on a party in the Eastern Star building following the parade.

First through third prizes were awarded in five categories: Prettiest, Funniest, Ugliest, Most Original and Best Group.

Most Original - Ezra Frick's portrayal of a colonial soldier.

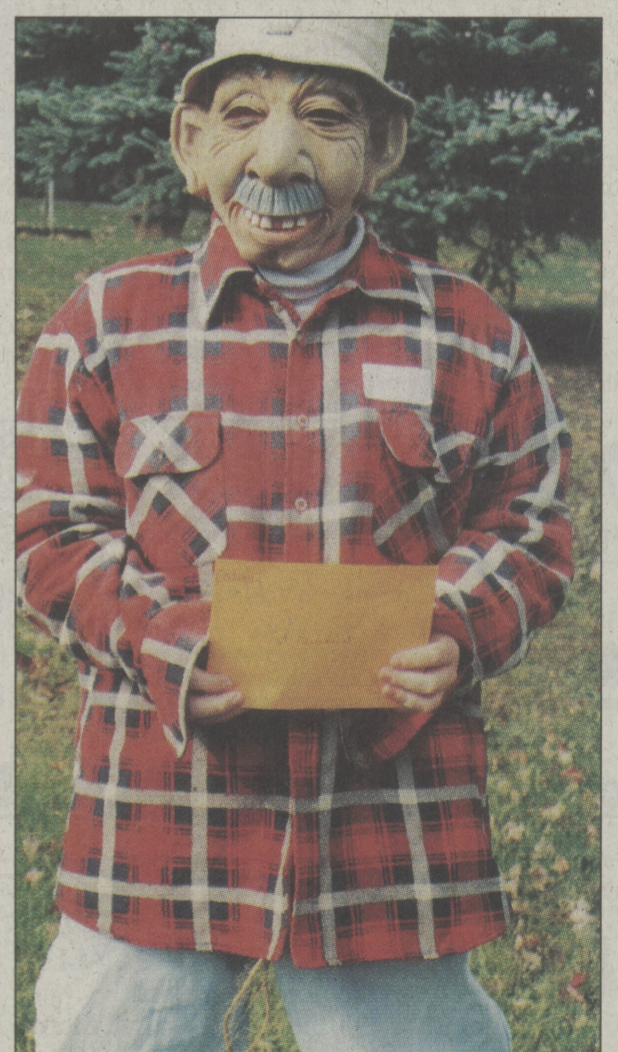

Ugliest - Joshua Shaver's costume sent a chill through the spine.

And the winners are . . .

Best Group - The Champluvier family, from left: Breanna, Melinda, Cheney and Calista.

Funniest - was D.J. Harding, plaid shirt and all.